Rush to Testify Following Mulhall's Sensational Lobby Charges.

MANY ARE ANXIOUS TO CLEAR SKIRTS

Request of Kirby and Parry for Postponement Denied by Overman.

WATSON WILL APPEAR A WEEK FROM TODAY.

Rushville, Ind., July 1.—Former Congressman James E. Watson will appear before the senate lobby committee a week from today, July 8. The date was fixed by Chairman Overman, of the committee in a telegram today to Mr. Watson, who had asked to be permitted to appear and give his side of the Mulhall charge.

Washington, July 1.—Disclosures to follow the re-opening of senate lobby investigation tomorrow are expected to be among the most important in recent congressional inquiries. Since the publication of Martin M. Mulhall's story of how he had operated to influence legislation and elections in behalf of the National Association of Manufacturers, scores of labor leaders, present and former congressmen, and others, have come forward with testimony and asked that they also be heard by the committee.

Louis J. Siebold, of New York, has also accepted service. He has been called as a man connected with the publication of the Mulhall statement to give the committee information as to its preparation and as to the letters and

DRASTIC LIQUOR LAW IN EFFECT IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 1.—The Jones-Works excise law, the most drastic liquor law ever designed for the District of Columbia, went into effect today. Under its terms not a drop of intoxicating liquor of any kind can be purchased in the national capital between the hours of 1 o'clock and 7 o'clock in the morning or on Sunday. The law is equally as rigid with the exclusive clubs as with the corner saloon.

As a direct result of the going into effect of the law Frank J. Kenny, a saloonkeeper, is in the morgue, a suicide. Under the terms of the new law Kenney feared he would lose his place of business and after brooding over the fact for several days took poison. His place will be closed.

Many Veterans Spend Night on Gettysburg Field Without Shelter.

DELAYED TRAINS CAUSE CONFUSION

First Formal Day of Semi-Centennial of Great Battle is On.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 1.—Despite the strenuous effort of the regular army to do impossible things, thousands of veterans spent the night on Gettysburg field with nothing between them and the stars but their clothes and their courage and nothing between them and the hard earth but a little more of the same thing.

It wasn't the fault of the regulars and it wasn't the fault of the veterans. The railroads poured the thousands into Gettysburg the best they could, but train after train that was looked for early came crawling in near midnight and afterwards. They kept coming from that hour until long after daybreak and shortly after breakfast the rush began again.

Major Normoyle, of the quartermaster's department U. S. A., who has the pulse of the camp under his fingers, did not go to bed nor did the little force of army officers. They toiled to provide blankets, to point out tents, to satisfy the vets that everything would be all right.

Crush Will Be Great.

Major Normoyle declared today that probably 55,000 veterans would be on the field by night, 5,000 more than have

OFF ON AUTO TOUR TO PACIFIC COAST

Twenty-Two Big Cars Make the Start Today from Indianapolis.

SPEAKERS IN PARTY

Indianapolis, Ind., July 1.—Twenty-two automobiles, carrying a hundred or more persons, started from here this afternoon on a tour to the Pacific coast in support of the proposed Lincoln transcontinental rock highway, to stretch from New York to Los Angeles, Cal. The tour is said to be one of the greatest ever taken, both in length and magnitude of purpose.

The caravan expects to reach Los Angeles on August 2 and will remain there until August 6, when the return trip, to be made by special train, will be started. The route selected will take the motorists over 3,575.1 miles of highway.

A number of speakers, including Charles A. Bookwalter, former mayor of Indianapolis, is in the party and will address meetings at practically all stops along the way, boosting the coast-to-coast highway project.

Many receptions and dinners have been planned for the tourists by the officials of the states and cities through which the automobiles will pass. The governors of some of the states have arranged to accompany the caravan through their states, included among these being Major, of Missouri; Ammons, of Colorado; Spry, of Utah, and Oddie, of Nevada.

Governor Johnson, of California, plans to meet the tourists at the edge of his state and remain with them until the special train starts with them for home. The highway, the plan for which originated with Carl G. Fisher, millionaire sportsman of this city, is to be built by popular subscription. Of the $10,000,000 needed for the building of the road, $4,000,000 already has been subscribed. The first stop will be at Terre Haute tonight.

VOTE ON "HOME-RULE" CHARTER.

Special Election on New Form of Government at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 1.—Citizens of Cleveland today will decide at the polls the question of teh adoption of a "home-rule" charter, drawn up this spring by a commission of fifteen, one of whom was Mayor Baker.

The charter provides for the election of a mayor and twenty-five councilmen, all the other officers being appointive or under civil service. The initiative, referendum and recall of public officials are incorporated.

Election ballots are non-partisan and candidates for office must secure their place on the ballot by petition.

AMERICAN PLAYERS BEATEN.

France Victorious in International Professional Golf Match.

La Boulie, France, July 1.—France today won the international golf match between teams of professionals representing France and the United States. The Frenchmen beat the American players in all of the four single matches, thus with yesterday's two wins in four games scoring six out of the possible six points.

DEATH COMES TO W. M. M'KINNIE

After Prolonged Illness One of City's Best Known Men Passes Away.

OPENED WAYNE HOTEL

After an illness of several weeks, William Mark McKinnie, the first proprietor of the Wayne hotel, and one of the city's best known business men, died at 11 o'clock this morning at the family home, 616 West Berry street, at the age of fifty-four years. Death was due to pernicious anaemia. In spite of his long illness, many of his friends did not know his condition was serious, and news of his death comes as a great shock. Mr. McKinnie was widely known and was one of the most popular hotel men in Fort Wayne before engaging in other lines of business.

Mr. McKinnie was born September 5, 1858 at Rochester, Pa., and was a son of the late Captain Henry McKinnie. He came to Fort Wayne with his parents

FIVE BURNED TO DEATH IN HOTEL

Emigrants Waiting to Sail for Europe Perish in New York Fire.

SCORE ARE INJURED

New York, July 1.—Five persons burned to death and twenty or more seriously injured in a fire which destroyed an immigrant hotel at 66 Greenwich street in the downtown section, late last night, were all aliens who had been booked to sail from New York today for their homes in Europe. The bodies, which were removed to a police station early today, were those of three unidentified men, a woman and a child. They lost their lives in almost the twinkling of an eye when the ancient three-story brick building was crumpled by the flames.

There were nearly seventy-five lodgers in the house, most of whom had come from other cities and had been provided with lodging there by a steamship agent who was arranging for their passage to Europe. The little building was so crowded that six or more lodgers were placed in a single room. Many were burned as they dashed through the flaming hallway and were forced to leap for safety as they landed on the pavements below. At least half a dozen were placed on the dangerous list at the hospital.

Those who escaped had to leave their clothes and money behind and it is believed that several thousand dollars in bills, representing the total savings of many of the aliens, was burned.

The police began an investigation of the fire today as its origin was mysterious and suspicion was aroused by the fact that another fire of unknown origin, which was easily extinguished, occurred in the hotel only the night before.

WOMEN END LIVES TO EVADE FIENDS

Forty Commit Suicide After Rebels Occupy City of Durango.

WILD EXCESSES RULE

Mexico City, July 1.—Forty women, mostly of the better class, have committed suicide in Durango since its occupation last week by the rebels after a long siege, according to a private letter received here today. The women, it says, became desperate as a result of treatment by the victorious rebels.

Consular advices say rebels who entered Durango conducted themselves like bandits, burning a large part of the business section, after looting it, and joining in the wildest excesses.

A few Americans were wounded during the fighting while one Englishman was killed, according to these reports. Private advices from other sources say several German women in Durango were forced to submit to indignities from rebel adherents.

The Mexican government is preparing troops for the relief of the city, but many days must pass before its arrival there.

TO ATTACK JUAREZ.

Douglas, Ariz., July 1.—Gen. Juan Medina, with between 300 and 400 well equipped men, marched out of Agua Prieta early today to assist Gen. Villa in an attack on Juarez. Medina was elected mayor of Juarez under the Madero administration but did not serve his full term.

The men he now leads to attack his home town are Sonora recruits. They are carrying a heavy siege cannon, two mountain howitzers and four machine guns and an ample supply of ammunition and provisions.

COUNTING STRIKE BALLOT.

Tabulating Result of Vote by Conductors and Trainmen.

New York, July 1.—A count of the strike ballot taken recently among the members of the Order of Railroad Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen after they were refused a raise in wages by the eastern railroads was begun here today. The committee of trainmen in charge said it would probably take two or three days to finish the count. The result will be announced, it was said, at a meeting between the committee and the conference committee of eastern railroad managers to be held in the near future.

Denver, Col., July 1.—A trip to the summit of Mount Evans, 14,000 feet, was the objective of a large party of turners that set out from Denver today. After leaving the railroad the party will travel on foot with pack trains. The tour will occupy eight days.

VINDICATES HER HONOR IN BLOOD

Josephine LaRosa Thrice Stabs Josephine Sacco Who is Dying.

SICILIAN GIRL IS HELD FOR CRIME

Feud in Italian Colony Results in Affray of Women.

Josephine Sacco, aged twenty, is dying at Hope hospital from wounds inflicted shortly after noon today by Josephine LaRosa, aged 16.

The crime was committed at 348 Melita street and followed a fight between J. C. Marina and Joseph Colina, who revived a feud of long standing.

The LaRosa girl's attack on her victim was in vindication of her honor, which had been aspersed by the other woman and was marked by such quickness and ferocity that Chief of Police Abbott and Officer Joseph Degitz, who were standing near, had no time to prevent the murderous onslaught.

Started With Men's Fight.

Shortly after noon the police were called to the Melita street Italian colony by a report of a fight. Chief Abbott and Officer Degitz went out with the wagon and found that Marina and Colina had been engaged in a combat of fists.

Marina is engaged to be married to a sister of Josephine Sacco and Marina is the husband of the LaRosa girl's sister.

A crowd had gathered at the scene of the fight, attracted by the excited talk of the combatants and their partisans and it was still further augmented by the arrival of the patrol wagon and officers.

The police placed Marina and Colina under arrest and were about to place

PRESIDENT GOES ON REST CRUISE

Wilson in Mayflower to Spend Three Days on Chesapeake Bay.

BUT ONE COMPANION

Washington, July 1.—President Wilson left Washington today for a three days' "rest cruise" on the yacht Mayflower. He will cruise in lower Chesapeake bay. His only companion is his physician, Dr. Casey T. Grayson.

The president expects to return to the white house Thursday night. He will go to the Gettysburg reunion Friday, where he will make a brief address and then proceed to Cornish, N. H., for three days with his family.

Signed After Midnight.

The navy "plucking board" finished its labors early this morning and before night fall five captains, four commanders, four lieutenant commanders and two lieutenants, who, under the law, had been selected for retirement from the service, probably will know their fate.

Because the law prohibited the signing of the report of the board before July 1, the members waited up until after midnight to attach their signatures, after which it was approved by Secretary Daniels. The midnight ceremony was made necessary by the fact that President Wilson was to leave early today on yacht Mayflower for a trip in Chesapeake bay. After navy officials had appended their signatures to the report it was hurried over to the white house for President Wilson's action before leaving.

SHORT SHRIFT FOR OLD SHACKS

City Condemns Twenty-One Old Buildings to Destruction.

INSPECTORS MAKE STRIKING REPORT

Many Dirty and Toppling Structures in the Fire Limits to Go.

Twenty-one shacks and old buildings in many parts of that portion of Fort Wayne within the fire limits are condemned to destruction by the report of the city hall inspection commission, which recently examined these properties with reference to their sanitary conditions and fire risk.

Notice will be served at once upon owners or agents that these condemned buildings must come down.

From ten days to three months are given the owners to comply with the order, the time being determined by conditions peculiar to each case.

These buildings in many instances are located in the heart of the down town business district. Seven of them are situated on Calhoun street, the main commercial artery of the city.

WAYNE'S VICTORY IS COMMEMORATED

Imposing Shaft Dedicated at Historic Old Fort Recovery.

MARKS ALSO DEFEAT

Fort Recovery, Ohio, July 1.—Commemorating both the defeat of General Arthur St. Clair, by the British and Indians in 1791, and the sweeping victory of General Mad Anthony and his American soldiers four years later, when he retrieved former losses after a desperate battle, an imposing memorial shaft was dedicated here today with notable ceremonies.

The great monument was erected under a congressional appropriation of $25,000 and the city of Fort Recovery provided $2,000 for a suitable setting for it in a public park but a short distance from the site upon which General Wayne erected his fort after his memorable victory that shaped later history in northwestern Ohio and northern Indiana. Principle speakers of the day were Gen. J. Warren Keifer and ex-Congressman William E. Conville, through whose efforts the congressional appropriation was secured. The dedicatory event is under the auspices of the Daughters of American Revolution, and at 6 o'clock this evening Miss Belle Noble Dean, of Indianapolis, a direct descendant of General St. Clair, will pull the silken cord which unveils the great shaft.

MOTHER UTTERS PRAYER AS CASKET IS LOWERED.

Peru, Ind., July 1.—A pathetic feature of the funeral of Harry Martin, the race driver killed last week at the Indianapolis motor speedway, in trying out a new car, was the prayer of the driver's mother as the coffin was being lowered into the grave. The prayer brought tears to the eyes of all assembled. The funeral was conducted by the Moose lodge, of which Martin was a member.

The Man Who is Trying to Make Our "Invisible Government" Visible to the Naked Eye.

COL. MARTIN MULHALL.

Col. Martin Mulhall, who turned the spotlight of publicity on the American invisible government, has long been a familiar figure around Washington. He has been seen in the clubs and hotels and there are thousands of men who had a speaking acquaintance with him who never thought to inquire his business.

Mr. Weseman's New Lid

THE OTHER EVENING, when W. H. P. Weseman, one of the night clerks at the postoffice, came to work, he brought some very delectable delicacies for his midnight lunch. But they failed to "delect"—whatever that is.

The postoffice boys declare, incidentally, that there are three degrees of comparison for the word "poor," namely: Positive, poor; comparative, poor as a church-mouse; superlative, poor as a postoffice-mouse. Of the latter named rodent, it appears that the government building houses quite a few, in spite of the spare pickings. Mr. Weseman knew about this, and as a precaution to guard his lunch he placed it on a table and covered it with his new straw sailor hat—one of the fine-and-dandy kind—and in order to keep it in place and completely cover the aforementioned delicacies, he placed a weight on the hat.

When lunch time came he found the hat in place, all right, with the weight holding it firmly to the table, but—horror of horrors!—there was a big hole in the front of it as large as an old-fashioned two-cent piece showing the way of entrance and exit of at least one very hungry mouse.

Several of the boys have been interviewed as to the exact language used by Mr. Weseman, and as the words cannot be ascertained to a certainty they are not here quoted. They all agree, however, concerning the look on his face, but this is indescribable in cold type.

Beginning the following evening, Mr. Weseman started the plan of suspending his lunch from the ceiling by a string.

Horror of horrors!

YELLOW DOG HAS A BETTER SHOW

So Judge Mungovan Told Ernest Cain, Deserter of His Family.

HE GOT NO CHANCE

"Chance? I would quicker give a yellow dog a chance than I would give one to you."

So spake Judge Mungovan in the city court today when Ernest Cain begged for another opportunity to prove that he could and would support his wife and three children, for desertion of whom he was arrested in Jackson, Mich., brought back here and bound over to the circuit court under $500 bonds.

Cain fled on June 6th leaving his wife and babes—the oldest but five years—without means of support and installed in a house that he had moved into without knowledge or consent of J. P. Martin, the owner.

He went to Jackson, got work in a hotel at $25 a month with board and room thrown in. His wife received no money and at no time knew of his whereabouts. He wrote her a letter, mailed it in a postal car to conceal the place where it was written and in it asked his wife to answer through the personal columns of the Detroit Free Press whether or not she would forgive him.

Cain's own testimony condemned him. He testified to facts that showed that within the past two years he had held just half a score of jobs in Fort Wayne, making good at none of them and giving his family never more than a little and most of the time nothing of what he earned.

He admitted excessive drinking and ascribed his incompetency and his flight to mental aberrations due to alcoholic excesses.

Mrs. Cain is a comely, delicate woman, who in her testimony sought as much as possible to spare her worthless spouse. She comes of the Blaising family at New Haven and her people are well-to-do. Her support has come mainly from home, where she is now domiciled with her children.

Of Cain little is known except that he is worthless. In binding him over Judge Mungovan grilled him without mercy.

Cain's abandonment of his family is aggravated by the fact that his wife is soon to bring into the world another little one to add to those already in want of a father's support and care. This is believed to be the principal reason for Cain's flight from Fort Wayne.

Stormed a Shoe Shop.

George Ottman and Ernest Theis, ebullient youth with limited capacity for control of a beer jingle, invaded Max Rubin's shoe repair shop on Harrison street yesterday afternoon and wrecked the peace and order of the place. A more or less free fight followed, during the progress of which Rubin got a call into the police. He talked with too much profanity and was also sent in. Rubin was let go and his tormentors got $10 and costs.

He Stole an Umbrella.

Jack Quinn, a marked specimen of the genuine homo, described as a "tough mug," got drunk, legged money, abused those who refused to give him any and brought up a noisy stunt on Calhoun street by stealing an umbrella from the Boston store. Patrolman Spillner got him after a bit of a chase and when Quinn resisted arrest brought him to time with a "punch in the snoot," as the officer described it. His case was continued a day for investigation.

Other Police Court Cases.

Ed McClain wouldn't vacate the Nickel Plate right of way when Special Officer Thompson told him to, but wanted to fight and did. He was licked, arrested and given fifteen days.

William Waters, arrested for the theft of half a dozen electric irons, found where he had concealed them in a stable, was charged with petit larceny and given $5 and costs and thirty days in jail.

George Blessing, en route by freight from Bellevue, Ohio, bought a pair of steel "knucks" of a hobo for 25 cents on the representation that they could be sold readily to yokels in Fort Wayne for $3. He was charged with carrying weapons and went over for a week.

A dozen drunks, vags and loiterers of assorted description, seven of them arrested by Officer Godfrey, were turned loose.

HEY REAPPEARS.

Louis Hey, who left his wife and child at their home, 1311 Wabash avenue, Sunday, June 15, caused his wife to attempt suicide with carbolic acid and fomented a lot of neighborhood talk, appeared at police headquarters this morning and gave himself up on a charge of deserting his child. He had been working in Marion, but came back when he learned he was wanted. He is now at home and his case will be heard tomorrow. A case of wife's relations seems to be at the bottom of his running away.

Ora Snook, another deserter, will have a hearing tomorrow.

NOTES OF THE POLICE.

A burglar entered the Charles Miller home, 1005 Phillips street, last midnight, getting in through an open window of a front room. Mrs. Miller was sleeping on a davenport, but was not awakened by the man. Later she was aroused and saw him standing by the pantry door. The intruder fled through the front door and when Sergeants Crawley and Galentine reached the place no clue could be found.

The fact that the intense heat has compelled householders to retire with doors and windows open is ascribed as the reason for frequent attempts to enter houses. Many such cases are reported.

The police motor patrol wagon is out of commission and a touring car is giving lawbreakers a taste of high life.

EXPECT BIG DISCLOSURES

telegrams Mulhall has agreed to produce.

Gompers Confirms Mulhall.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who figured in Mulhall's story, as the object of a long continued attack by those who attempted to bribe him and force him to give up his fight in behalf of labor legislation, has made public a detailed report of the attempted bribery. It confirms the story told by Mulhall. The Gompers statement is a report that the labor leader appeared in 1907 after his experience with Broughton Brandenberg, now a convict in Sing Sing prison, New York, who claimed to be in the employ of the National Association of Manufacturers. Efforts to secure private interviews with Gompers aroused the latter's suspicion and he took several labor leaders into his confidence, and later made a full report to them of the occurrences that followed.

Gompers met Brandenburg, says the report, under the advice and suggestion of officials of the American Federation of labor. Brandenburg represented himself as in charge of a bureau of the National Association of Manufacturers, organized to "expose the immorality and dishonesty of the leaders in the labor movement."

Led Brandenburg On.

According to this report Gompers led Brandenburg on until the latter proposed that Gompers should prepare a general statement in the nature of a confession, should stand for re-election as president of the American Federation of Labor in 1908 and should then resign, leaving the Federation of Labor crippled by his retirement and the exposure of leaders.

"My object in coming to you is to try and save you," Brandenburg is quoted as saying. "I want to save you and while I don't want to express in specific financial terms what the National Association of Manufacturers is willing to do yet I can guarantee that you will be financially safe for the balance of your life."

The Gompers report states that the interview terminated there; that Gompers succeeded in keeping the paper Brandenburg had prepared for him to sign, and that Vice President Duncan and other officials of the federation were at once acquainted with circumstances.

President Gompers and other officials of the federation probably will testify before the senate committee that alleged activities of the lobby bore directly upon national legislation.

Asked to Be Excused.

Both John Kirby, jr., and D. M. Parry are in San Francisco, and were expecting to sail for Australia today. They wired Chairman Overman asking to be excused from testifying before the senate committee now, but promised to appear on their return in several months. They wired it would cost them about $3,000 each to change their plans. Chairman Overman today wired the two men directing they hold themselves in readiness to appear.

Representative Sherley, of Kentucky, mentioned in the Mulhall charges as one the manufacturers could count upon to support certain measures today secured from Senator Overman permission to appear before the lobby committee tomorrow and make a statement. Sherley said he would introduce in the house tomorrow a resolution for an investigation by special committee and make a statement detailing conversations with Mulhall.

Lewis Cass Ledyard and Maxwell Evarts, New York, and David Lamar, a Wall street operator, have accepted telegraphic summons, to appear before the committee tomorrow.

CANCEL THEIR RESERVATIONS.

Kirby and Parry Prepare to Start for Washington.

San Francisco, July 1.—Half an hour before the liner Ventura was due to sail today for the Antipodes, John Kirby, jr., and David M. Parry, former presidents of the National Association of Manufacturers, cancelled their reservation and engaged transportation for Washington, where they will appear before the senate committee investigating the activities of lobbyists. The change of plans will cost them $3,000 apiece. They promised before leaving to make a public statement.

Mr. Kirby is willing to appear before the senatorial committee investigating activity of the lobby as described by Martin M. Mulhall, but he asked the committee to postpone his appearance for several months.

"I learned last night," said Mr. Kirby, "that Mulhall had sold to the New York World all of the correspondence, records and other papers that came into his possession while he was employed by the association—records dealing with the affairs of the association.

"I don't know what Mulhall has in these papers—nothing from me.

"When Mulhall was dismissed from the association he tried for months to get back. He had a number of Washington politicians, and even congressmen, come to me in his behalf.

"I wouldn't have him. It was I who laid the matter of the kind of work he was doing before the board of directors and had him discharged.

"e was field agent while with us, was subject to general instructions that might take him to all parts of the country. Much of his work was in Washington.

"He was getting $3,500 a year and that only for his last two years with the association. He did not spend $200,000. His expenses couldn't come to anything like that."

Kirby is here with David M. Parry, another former president of the association, and J. P. Bird, of Plainfield, N. J., general manager of the organization.

Bird, who planned a trip through Washington and Oregon, has altered his plans and will start for Washington, D. C., today because of the investigation.

Kirby said he received a telegram from Washington asking him whether he would come to Washington or whether a subpoena would be necessary. He answered this, he said, expressing complete willingness to testify, but asked, on account of the completed arrangements made for the trip to the antipodes, that the time of his appearance before the committee be postponed for several months.

been looked for. Although half that number would fill the camp in comfortable fashion, Major Normoyle said that he would see that every one was taken care of; that nobody went hungry and that blankets and tents were for all.

In their rounds of the main streets of the camp in the early morning the regulars ran into many things that made them peevish. While other veterans shivered in the chill before the dawn, they found a Pennsylvanian in his tent snug as a bug in a rug, lying on three blankets with three over him and nine beneath his cot. The Pennsylvanian was keeping them for friends, he said, but the hard-hearted regulars couldn't see the friends and the Pennsylvania was separated from all but two of blankets in short order.

Many of the men of '63 spent the night around the fires, near the cook tents, talking and trying to forget that their bones were not so young as they used to be and that the ground was much harder than it was fifty years ago.

First Formal Day.

This was the first formal day of the semi-centennial celebration. Although Buford and Wheeler had a skirmish near Gettysburg fifty years ago yesterday it was on July 1 that the battle began which forced the Union troops out of Gettysburg back to and Cemetery Ridge.

Col. J. M. Schoenmaker, chairman of the Pennsylvania Gettysburg commission, was the presiding officer for today's meeting in the big tent and Secretary of War Garrison, Governor Tener of Pennsylvania, Commander-in-Chief Alfred B. Beers, of the G. A. R., and Commander-in-Chief Gen. Bennett H. Young, of the United Confederate Veterans, were listed as the principal speakers. Otto L. Stamm, of Almond, N. Y., a member of the Twenty-seventh Massachusetts infantry, died during the night of apoplexy.

The army surgeons have been surprised at the endurance show by the veterans and by the fact that no more of them have succumbed to the heat.

Veterans Show Endurance.

"There have been no real prostrations," said Major Collins of the army medical staff. "Many of the veterans have arrived exhausted or have come here sick and toppled over after they got here. When you think that only a few score men in nearly 50,000, all of them near the seventy year mark, have been taken to the hospital and that only four have died you will see that it is a remarkable record."

The army doctors and Dr. Samuel Dixon, of the Pennsylvania state health department, today continued their effort to have the sale of liquor in the town of Gettysburg stopped. Col. Beitler, a member of the state commission, announced that Governor Tener could not declare martial law in Gettysburg and close the saloons. A last appeal will be made to the Gettysburg authorities.

Sit in Sweltering Heat.

Fifteen thousand veterans of the war between the states sat in the sweltering heat of the big tent on the Gettysburg battlefield today and joined in the opening ceremonies of the first day of the semi-centennial celebration. The doctors of the regular army and Pennsylvania department of health and the Red Cross looked with apprehension upon the swelling crowd of old and feeble men that jammed the aisles, climbed over the seats and tried hard to look comfortable in a temperature that had left one hundred behind hours before.

Col. J. M. Schoenmaker, chairman of the Pennsylvania battle celebration commission presided and the first address was by Gov. Tenor, of Pennsylvania, who welcomed the men in blue and the gray.

Secretary of War Garrison followed with the oration of the day. Then came addresses by Judge Alfred B. Beers, of Bridgeport, Conn., commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and General Bennet H. Young, of Kentucky, grand commander of the United Confederate Veterans. Secretary Garrison reached camp at noon. He motored from Baltimore and arrived on the heels of Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, U. S. A. The secretary will spend several days here and inspect the big "city" from end to end. He was the first notable of the administration to arrive and the battery of artillery that has been waiting anxiously to unlimber got its first chance to thunder out a salute.

Secretary Garrison Speaks.

In beginning his address Secretary Garrison said:

"In the name of the nation, I bid you welcome. In the name of the whole people of a united country, I bid you twice welcome. In the name of its people who recognize the high import of this fraternal gathering, you are thrice welcome.

"Once again is Gettysburg the center of the world's attention. Once again does this field tremble under the tread of a mighty host; not now in fear, however, but in joy. The field of enmity has become the field of amity. You have trodden under your feet the bitter weeds of hate and anger; and in their places have sprung up the pure flowers of friendship and love.

"Gettysburg seems destined to be the stage upon which shall be unfolded the scenes of a great historic drama. Within the short span of fifty years, its gentle slopes and placid plains have witnessed three scenes of great historic import, running the whole gamut of man's three-fold nature. Each scene has been unique and typical of its kind: first the battle, with its almost unexampled display of the physical powers of man; then the great heart and mind of Abraham Lincoln, bodied forth in his wonderful address delivered here; and last, this assemblage, the deep spiritual significance of which can scarcely be exaggerated. So we have body, mind and spirit, each displaying its distinctive characteristics to their fullest extent upon this small stage of the world's great theater."

Addressing the remnants of the armies of fifty years ago Judge Beers pointed out that the history of the world holds no record of "such a spectacle as this—the voluntary meeting on a battlefield of those who constituted the forces that fought against each other," he sketched briefly the conflict "waged by men of the same race, of the same bravery."

Pensions for Ex-Confederates.

Gen. Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the confederate veterans in his address today discussed the question of government pensions for the soldiers still alive, who fought under the stars and bars.

"It may be," he said, "that the suggestion lately put into form to give confederate soldiers the same privileges in national soldiers' homes as federal soldiers, may lead to the establishing of this right; or that peace in its demand for the obliteration of all the bitterness of the past may demand that the nation shall pension surviving confederates. I do not even suggest, or in the name of my people, say that it would be accepted but this republic is a great destroyer of the cherished ideals of the past, when they stand in the way of completest justice. For nearly fifty years the people of the south without complaint have contributed millions for the pensions of federal soldiers. A nation's gratitude has been meted out through enormous grants to provide for the federal soldiers, their wives and children. No murmur has ever come from the men of the confederacy at this great outlay and there are some who predict that the hour may arrive in national life when the few and infirm remaining men who fought under the confederate standards with admittedly unsurpassed courage should have in the evening time the comfort and conveniences that their intrepidity deserves."

FIGHTS WAY IN SCALDING STEAM

employe of the Erie railroad, battled desperately for life here today. He emerged badly injured, suffering from scalds upon the hands, arms and neck from which the skin was dropping, and with a severe gash in his head, but fully conscious. He was hurried to the hospital and has a chance for recovery.

The accident occurred at the crossing of the Erie and Wabash railroads. Knight was operating the steam lifting crane for the Erie, installing a new crossing at that point. His machine picked up the heavy crossing, but its weight was too great for the crane, and with the steel work in the air the crane toppled over against the west embankment at the crossing. The open side of the crane's cab was downward and Knight was a prisoner. Hissing steam from the broken boiler completely enveloped cab and occupant and made assistance from rescuers impossible. Uttering no sound, bearing his scalds with splendid heroism, Knight sought first one and then another mode of egress, only to fail. As the only recourse the desperately injured man literally dug his way through the cinders upon the embankment beneath the entrance to his cab without assistance. Occasional veering of the cloud of steam permitted onlookers to catch frequent glimpses of the man working desperately for freedom and for life, but they were unable to aid him. Finally, still conscious, Knight emerged from the lower side of the cab through the tunnel he had dug through the cinders, and he walked with assistance a full square to the depot, where he was given temporary surgical attention and hurried away to the hospital. Knight is married.

many years ago, and twenty-six years ago was united in marriage to Miss Georgie Fleming, daughter of the late William Fleming, a pioneer business man of Fort Wayne.

For eight years Mr. McKinnie was manager of the famous Pennsylvania eating house, in its busiest days. Twenty-five years ago he assumed the management of the New Wayne hotel, and remained at the head of the popular hostelry for ten years. He then left Fort Wayne with his family, going to Pittsburg, where he became proprietor of the Anderson hotel in that city. Three years ago he returned to Fort Wayne and engaged in the real estate business, under the firm name of the McKinnie Realty company, with offices at the corner of Berry and Harrison streets.

Surviving besides the widow he leaves four children, Linda McKinnie, society editor on the staff of the Journal-Gazette; Gerald, Carlotta and Fleming McKinnie, all residing at home. One brother, Frank McKinnie, resides at Sewickley, Pa.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but friends are asked to kindly omit flowers.

VINDICATES HONOR IN BLOOD

them in the patrol, when the Sacco woman, who had gone into her home yard adjoining, turned around and evidently was coming back to explain something to the officers about the fight.

Hid Her Stiletto.

Meanwhile, Rosa LaTosca, had gone into the house. As Josephine Sacco started to return the Sicilian girl leaped past the officers, and with indescribable ferocity and quickness sprang upon her victim and again and again sunk the dagger in her flesh.

Chief Abbott and Officer Degitz saw the attack, but so quickly was it made and so unexpectedly came the climax of the affray that neither could reach the tigerish girl in time to prevent the infliction of wounds that may cause death.

The enraged Sicilian struck for the heart and missed only because the victim was turned about slightly by the onslaught.

The first blow fell upon her arm, where a deep and ugly wound was inflicted. Another entered the upper part of the left breast, but did not enter deeply enough to be serious. A third stroke of the stiletto was plunged into the left side of the woman's back and passed almost through her body below the heart.

The last wound it is feared will cause death.

One to Hospital; Other to Prison.

The officers secured the maddened woman, disarmed her, and then Chief Abbott picked up the injured girl and placed her in the police auto, hurrying her to Hope hospital.

The two men who had engaged in the fight that had such a bloody climax were also taken to the police headquarters and locked up. They will be held under heavy bonds as witnesses to await the outcome of the Sacco woman's injuries.

Josephine Sacco was placed in the woman's cell at police headquarters, where she was questioned by Chief Abbott and Assistant Prosecutor Callahan.

Her Honor Assailed; Would Kill.

In her cell the Sa Rosa girl said to The Sentinel:

"She call me bad girl. She say I have child and other bad things that are not true about me. I am not a bad girl. I keep my honor. She made me mad—Oh, so mad—with what she say."

"Did you mean to kill her—did you want to kill her?" she was asked.

'Oh, no, no; I no want to kill her. I want her to say no more about me like she did—that I am a bad girl and not good and have a child."

"Had you ever had trouble before?"

"Yes, some troubles, when she bring a man to me and want me to take him and be bad. I told her to go way, that I am a good girl and I no want a man. I come from Italy, from Sicily; I been here three year and I always been a good girl; no bad like American girls. That's what I struck her for—she call me bad and say I have child."

Her Honor Impeached.

From what could be gathered by the officers the Sacco girl had some jealousy of the LaRosa girl, whose sister is soon to become a bride. Among the aspersions imputed to her was that she "need not be so stuck up about it;" that she had already had a child and was not a good girl.

When the young Sicilian heard this her hot blood became hotter and she resolved upon vengeance and vindication after the manner of her people, where the law of the feud is the rule of the land.

She stole into the house, procured her weapon and concealing it between her arm and gown, slipped past the officers and was upon her victim in a twinkling.

Home-Made Knife Her Own.

The weapon with which the deed was committed is a home-made, hand-forged blade wrought from a file. Its blade is about seven and a half or eight inches in length, ground to a point and quite sharp on both of its edges. It has a plain round wooden handle and is not guarded with a hilt. It is a dangerous weapon and driven by the infuriate strength of the girl was passed almost through the Sacco woman's body.

Josephine LaRosa is small, lithe and rather pretty, or would be if well dressed and properly cleaned up, combed and adorned. She is highly excitable, quick and cat-like in movement, and speaks with great fire of her wrongs at the hands of the woman she stabbed.

Remained Conscious.

No time was lost in placing the woman upon the operating table after she had been removed to the hospital. Dr. C. L. Canada made an examination of her injuries and dressed the wounds, one of which nearly passed entirely through her body, a short distance below the heart. The woman never lost consciousness in spite of her painful wounds and the great loss of blood suffered on the road to the hospital.

Dr. Canada declared that it would be impossible to predict the outcome of the wounds, at least for three or four days. The blade of the long knife used by the assailant passed once through the biceps of the left arm and once through the woman's shoulder, while the most dangerous wound resulted from the stab in the back, which entered the dorsal region and missing the left lung by a narrow margin, cut its way downward a short distance below the heart.

Was Downward Blow.

The wound is made more dangerous by the course it took in the woman's body. The blow which sent the long blade into the flesh was delivered with a downhand stroke, tearing and cutting the flesh and muscles in horrible manner.

The physician states that if her recovery depended upon the mere cut of the knife, she would doubtless survive, but the danger lies chiefly in the complications that usually follow such a case, where poisonous matter is carried into the body on the knife blade. It is said that the injured woman was not dressed cleanly, and infectious matter may have passed from her clothing into the back wound and may later cause blood poisoning or other complications.

CITY WILL PAY OFF THURSDAY

Officials and Employes to Get Their Money in Time for Fourth.

NEWS OF CITY HALL

Arrangements are under way today to pay off the city employes on Thursday instead of Saturday. Payment will be made on the 3rd instead of the 5th in order that the men and women who work for the municipality of Fort Wayne may be well supplied in funds for the proper celebration of the one hundred and thirty-seventh anniversary of our national independence. The pay rolls are made out and the little yellow envelopes are receiving the cash that belongs in them. It has been a practice at the city hall for a good many years to anticipate pay days a short time when they fall near, but subsequently to holidays.

SEALER CONDEMNS MEASURES.

City Sealer C. B. Tolan begun this morning to enforce the new regulations relating to the use of dry measures of standard type and dimensions on the city market. Twenty-eight of the 110 stands were inspected and thirty-two measures failed to come up to the standard established by the state bureau of weights and measures and were condemned by the sealer. Some of them were notably deficient and others slightly so, but they failed in the test and were thrown out. Sealer Tolan will continue his work on the market until all the stands have been inspected and correct standardized measures adopted. The new regulations went into effect today. Notices were given all dealers on the market some days ago that the regulations would be enforced, and each was furnished with a card showing what was required in the matter of dry measures.

SEWER AWARD IS MADE.

The board of works awarded the contracts for construction of four and a half miles of sewers in West Wayne Heights to the Moellering Construction company. The board was assured by Mr. Moellering that he would start work on the contracts not later than September first and would turn them over completed to the city in six months thereafter. A sewer trenching machine has been purchased for this work. The price at which the contracts were let was $2.60½ per lineal foot for sewer No. 31 and $2.68½ for sewer No. 32. The completion of this work will confer sewer conveniences on a vast and thickly populated territory. It will cost about $61,000 to get the improvements.

The board of works has ordered plans for sidewalks on the south side of Suttenfield street from Calhoun to Lafayette.

SHIRTWAISTS FOR COPPERS.

The board of safety has extended the shirtwaist privilege to day patrolmen of the regular police force and the order has gone to Chief Abbott to permit his men to attire themselves in neat shirts of blue with soft collars of an inexpensive quality. Patrolman Paul exhibited himself at the drugstore of Joseph C. Hutzell, chairman of the board of safety, yesterday all buttoned up in a heavy uniform coat with the mercury struggling above 98 in the cool spots. That settled it.

TUBERCULOSIS NURSE.

Persons who want to communicate with Miss Shively, the Anti-Tuberculosis society's visiting nurse, can reach her over telephone 715, in the city health office, which will be her quarters for the present. At a joint meeting of the city board of health and the advisory board of the society, last night, Miss Shively's work was more definitely mapped out.

CLERKS TO MEET TONIGHT.

May Take Steps Toward Organizing Retail Clerks' Union.

A meeting of retail store clerks of Fort Wayne will be held this evening in the hall above the Star theater, and it is believed that initial steps will be taken to perfect the organization of a Fort Wayne retail clerks' union. At a meeting held last week temporary officers were appointed, and it is believed that the store employes will organize permanently. The union is the outcome of a petition efiled by clerks some time ago, asking proprietors to close their stores each Saturday evening during the summer at 6 o'clock. The merchants have taken no definite action at this time, but are expected to do so at a meeting to be held at the Commercial club Wednesday evening.

BEER DRINKERS HAD BUSY MONTH

Astonishing Increase Shown in Report from U. S. Revenue Office Here.

IS A RECORD BREAKER

More beer was consumed in Fort Wayne and the district surrounding the city during the month of June than in any previous month in the history of the Fort Wayne office of the United States revenue department, according to figures made public today by Deputy Collector C. M. Blue in his report for the thirty days just ended.

Approximately 10,000 more barrels of beer were consumed last month than during the month of May, and according to comparative figures, beer drinkers in Fort Wayne revenue district poured more than 13,000 barrels of beer down their throats during the month of June this year, than they did during the corresponding month a year ago.

All of the beer manufactured in this district is not consumed here, but consignments of other brands of beer shipped into the district from other parts of the country furnishes a fair balance. Revenue stamps on beer cost the manufacturer $1 per barrel, and the revenue receipts for the month just closed amount to nearly $10,000 more than the total for the previous month.

All previous records since the opening of the revenue office here were shattered last month when receipts amounted to $18,255.52, and during the month Mr. Blue reports three days when receipts amounted to more than $5,000. Total receipts for the previous month were $38,788.16, and receipts for the corresponding month a year ago were $34,797.49.

Mr. Blue attributes the increased consumption of beer, and the resulting bulge in revenue receipts, to the excessively hot weather.

ANTI-NET CRUSADE IN NOBLE COUNTY

William Neil, a Prominent Farmer Near Albion is Arrested With One in Possession.

Kendallville, Ind., July 1.—Deputy Fish and Game Warden J. Havel of Rome City, reports another arrest in Jefferson township, Noble county, William Neil having been taken in charge of the law when a search of his place revealed one large 200-foot gill net, two large fish net traps and one wire fish trap.

Deputies Havel and Stout, armed with a search warrant, went to the home, which is located near Skinner lake. Their search was rewarded when the illegal fish traps and net were found in the barn, the net apparently having been used only recently, as it was stretched out and drying at the time.

Neil will have a hearing this week. He is liable for fines of from $5 to $200 on each of three charges, having a net and two net traps. The net and traps were taken as evidence to be used in court.

Deputy Havel expressed himself as particularly well pleased with the arrest of Neil. He said that for years the deputies had suspected him of violations of the fishing laws, but that sufficient evidence could never be secured. Neil's principal occupation is a fisherman.

This makes three arrests within the past week of men having those large gill nets in their possession. L. Hartman has been held to the circuit court at Auburn; Judley Itt, of Jefferson township, is to have a hearing on such a charge today or Wednesday, and Neil will face his charges this week.

Deputies Havel and Stout say they will not cease their activities until all of the violators have been captured.

YOUNG WOMAN A HOME-BREAKER.

Girl in Warsaw Jail for Breaking a Parole, Thick With Employer.

Warsaw, Ind., July 1.—Miss Ada Renfrow, who was arrested at Elkhart for breaking her parole, and who is now in the Kosciusko county jail awaiting a hearing in the circuit court, is charged with having been too friendly with Peter Zeltinger, the restaurant man, for whom she worked at Elkhart. The parole violation accusation against Miss Renfrow is said to have been filed by Mrs. Zeltinger, who is the defendant in a divorce action recently instituted by her husband.

Zeltinger alleges that he had never been more than a friend to the young woman, assisting her when she asked for help. Miss Renfrow was arrested as she stepped from the witness stand in the Elkhart municipal court, after having testified for the defendant in the case of LeGrande M. Berry, arraigned on the charge of attempting criminal assault on Mrs. William Messenger.

DELPHOS HAS A CHASER.

Ladies of the Town Are Followed by a Mysterious Man.

Delphos, Ohio, July 1.—Delphos has a "chaser," a man of mystery, who makes a practice of pursuing ladies in the dark, frightening them with the worst apprehensions. It is believed there is a clue to his identiy and that soon he will be taken into custody. Women of the Fourth ward have been the peculiar objects of his attentions. This man, it is said, has followed different ladies in that part of the city after dark, during the past week. On several different occasions he is known to have followed women and when they became frightened and started to run he ran after them. On Thursday night the man followed a lady on West Fourth street, but she reached her home and informed several men in the neighborhood. The strange acting individual was still in sight when the men appeared, but when he saw them he ran down an alley and escaped. If all reports are true the man is no doubt demented.

DUMPED IN A COLLISION.

Samuel Shaddle Suffers Painful Injuries Near Montpelier.

Montpelier, Ind., July 1.—Samuel Shaddle, living north of this city a few miles, met with a painful accident while returning home from this city. He and his wife were driving north about midnight, when some one tried to go around them. Shaddle was driving a spirited horse and it started up and a race was soon on. They got along very well until the two rigs met another rig driven by Jacob Yahnie. Shaddle hooked into it and the horse and shafts pulled from the buggy, dumping the Shaddles into the fence. The Yahnie rig had a wheel demolished. Shaddle has a broken shoulder blade and three broken ribs. He is otherwise bruised up. Mrs. Shaddle escaped with a few scratches.

WARDENS CAPTURE NET.

Albion, Ind., July 1.—Deputies Jacob Havel, of Rome City, and Cy Stout, of Auburn, in their investigation for violations of the fishing laws, found a 200-foot gillnet on the premises of Judley Itt, of Jefferson township, two and one-half miles from Albion near Skinner lake. Itt, who is a former resident of Kendallville, could not give a satisfactory explanation of why he had the net in his possession and he was placed under arrest. He was at home at the time.

WOMAN SEVERELY SCALDED.

Columbia City, Ind., July 1.—Mrs. Jacob Erne, of this city, is suffering from severe injuries received while pouring coffee for the family. The handle of the coffee pot broke and the boiling contents was spilled over her bosom, scalding her most painfully.

AGED MAN INJURED IN FALL.

Dunkirk, Ind., July 1.—William G. Sutton, aged eighty-five, one of the best known citizens in this part of the state and locally known as "the father of Dunkirk," fell and fractured his left hip near the joint. As Mr. Sutton was crossing the street near his home an approaching automobile blew its horn, causing Mr. Sutton to turn suddenly, throwing him to the ground.

STRANNGER ROILS HUNTINGTON WATER

Tampers With Fire Plugs and Puts City Supply of Aqua Pura on the Murky Blink.

Huntington, Ind., July 1.—Taking it upon himself to tamper with city water plugs resulting in roiling of the water supply over the greater part of the city and rendering it unfit for use, an unknown man of whom the authorities have a detailed description, is being sought and upon apprehension will be charged with violation of a city ordinance. This ordinance makes it unlawful for anyone outside of a city employe, who is at the time working under orders from the waterworks superintendent, to use a city water plug except in case of fire.

Huntington's city water assumed a rusty appearance and inquiries commenced coming in at the superintendent's office as to the reason for this. Supt. John Fulton immediately started an investigation. He learned that between the hours of 10 and 11 a man was seen to take off the cap and flush a plug at Wilkerson and Third streets. This, according to witnesses, was accomplished with a pipe wrench. After turning off the water he was seen to enter the Erie yards and go in the direction of the machine shops.

The fellow is described as tall and slender, wearing dark trousers and short and was smooth face. He wore no coat.

Not knowing how to operate a water plug correctly, the fellow in turning it on caused water to come in spurts instead of a steady flow, with the result that all rust and other accumulations in the mains were stirred up and mixed with the water.

FARM HOME DESTROYED.

Ray Salmon, of Whitley County Suffers Big Loss.

Columbia City, Ind., July 1.—The country home of Ray Salmon situated in Troy township, was completely destroyed by fire and the loss to the owner is estimated at $1,000. At the time the fire was discovered Mr. and Mrs. Salmon were not at home, they having started for Ormas, and the news that their home was on fire overtook them at Etna and they hurried back to the scene.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Emanuel Kring, who is a next door neighbor, and she immediately sounded the alarm and the neighbors responded and managed to get all of the household goods out down stairs but what was upstairs was consumed by the flames. The fire is supposed to have originated in some manner from a defective flue.

Mr. Salmon carried $500 insurance on the house and $200 on the contents, the same being in the Farmers' Mutual Insurance company of Whitley county. The house was a two story structure, there being three rooms downstairs and two rooms upstairs besides the closets. Mr. Salmon expects to rebuild at once.

TIGER KEEPER FINED.

Huntington Bottler is Found to Be Doing Unlawful Business.

Huntington, Ind., July 1.—Pleading guilty to a charge of illegal sales of liquor in a house on Harris street, George Herberg, proprietor of a local bottling works, received a fine of $50 and costs, amounting to $81.25, before Judge S. E. Cook, of the Huntington circuit court. A jail sentence of thirty days, imposed upon Herberg, was suspended during good behavior.

Herberg was arrested Saturday during a raid conducted by Prosecutors Krieg and Sapp and Deputy Sheriff Haloy. Entering the house on Harris street, which rumor had said was a "blind tiger," the county officials beheld evidence of recent sales of liquor. Although no illegal sales of alcoholic beverages were witnessed by the local men, Herberg consented to plead guilty to the charges served on him.

CHILD DIES BY FIRE.

Huntington, Ind., July 1.—Burns received when his night clothing caught fire from an ignited match shortly after arising proved fatal to Paul Carl Forst, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Forst, of Center street. The child received the fatal burns early in the morning. The father and mother had arisen, thinking the child still asleep. Shortly after they heard screams of agony from the head of the stairs and rushing in to ascertain the cause found the lad enveloped in a mass of flames. The exact manner in which the unfortunate child received the injury is not known although it is thought that in running through the pockets of some clothes belonging to his father, he found a match and in his endeavor to descend the steps accidentally scratched the match causing its ignition. The deceased was the only child in the family.

CHAFFEUR WENT TO SLEEP.

Hartford City, Ind., July 1.—Falling asleep while driving his Buick roadster, Ross Templeton, of this city, narrowly escaped serious if not fatal injury and his car was wrecked when it crashed into a concrete bridge railing at Pucketts, a small town, six miles this side of Marion. Templeton had started after dinner from this city to Marion to visit friends. The cooling breezes made him drowsy and forgetting that he was holding to the steering gear of an automobile instead of the lines of faithful old Dobbin, who use to trudge along steadily while his driver slept, Templeton fell into a doze from which he was rudely awakened a few minutes later when his machine crashed into the bridge.

HOME BROKEN UP.

Bluffton, Ind., July 1.—A scandal involving Mrs. Earl Hower, a young wife, and George W. McArthur, an automobile salesman, came to light here following investigations by Mrs. Hower's husband, with the result that a violent scene was enacted between Mr. and Mrs. Hower, at their home on North Morgan street, which threw the entire neighborhood into excitement, and McArthur fled from the city, probably never to return, deserting a woman with whom he has been residing on East Market street. His flight was made to escape possible prosecution and to escape danger of threatened personal violence and vengeance from the young husband whom he so terribly wronged.

TRAIN SMASHES AUTO.

Bluffton, Ind., July 1.—An automobile belonging to William Jones, of Tocsin, was completely wrecked when it was struck by a westbound fast passenger train on the Chicago & Erie railroad, due through Tocsin about 9:30 o'clock.

Just before the crash that wrecked the machine Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their son, and Mrs. Jones' father, Samuel Kunkel, were occupants of the machine, but they escaped injury, and probably death, by jumping from the machine and running, when they realized that it was certain to be struck by the locomotive.

MAKES TOWNSHIP WET.

Warsaw, Ind., July 1.—Judge A. H. Plummer, acting as special judge, today reversed the decision of the county commissioners and held Turkey Creek township, in Kosciusko county, wet. Syracuse and the Lake Wawasee resort are in this township and saloon licenses will now be granted to two applicants. One saloon will be at the Wawasee Inn and the other in Syracuse. The fight has been a bitter one. It started immediately after the option election on April 1, when the township voted wet.

NO STREET CARS IN DEFIANCE.

Defiance, Ohio, July 1.—The last street car was run over the Defiance city line last night and today the community is without traction service. Operation of street cars has never been profitable in Defiance and when the March flood swept away the Hopkins street bridge only a part of that line could be used. The future of the system will depend largely on the people of Defiance. The line will not be operated unless it can be made to pay at least expenses.

LIBRARY CONTRACTS LET.

Waterloo, Ind., July 1.—Contracts for the construction of the Waterloo public library building have been let. J. B. Goodall, contractor for the DeKalb county court house at Auburn, was awarded the contract for the library building on his bid of $6,950. Roy McDowell, of Auburn, received the contract for the electric fixtures at $468, and the Lige Heating and Ventilating company of Auburn got the contract for heating and plumbing. The building is to be completed in three months.

BOY BATHERS STEAL.

Auburn, Ind., July 1.—There is a swimming hole near Auburn Junction that is a great drawing place for boys who come from Garrett to bathe in the cooling water. A "bunch" of Garrett lads after taking a swim, concluded that they wanted something to eat and they broke into the home of George Carper, took what suited their tastes in the eating line, and a watch and a small sum of money turned up missing when the Carper family returned home. The authorities are investigating the affair.

STRUCK FOR THEIR PAY.

Huntington, Ind., July 1.—A gang of double-trackers that were working for the Eyre-Shoemaker Construction company at Tocsin refused to work until they had received back wages that they said were due them. A bunch of foreigners were shipped to Tocsin from near this city to work in place of the striking men. The company asked the men to wait a few days for their pay, but they refused to work and so the Huntington workers were put on the job.

WARSAW'S NEWSBOY IS 73.

Warsaw, Ind., July 1.—Warsaw's best known "newsboy" is now past seventy-three years old. John Richhart, the blind vender who has stood at the corner of Buffalo and Center streets for many years celebrated the third lap beyond the allotted three score and ten yesterday. He has always been faithfully at his post and is perhaps the most familiar human figure in Warsaw.

WABASH COUNTY PIONEER.

Mr. Purdy was born in Ohio about seventy-two years ago. He came to this county when a young man and had lived here since that time.

RAIDS AT MONTPELIER.

Montpelier, Ind., July 1.—The prosecutor and his deputy, with Grover Grif fith, came to this city and "pulled" the Blue Front and the Sidy resort. The landladies, with two girls from each place, were taken before Mayor Burns, where the girls were fined for associating. The landladies were not fined.

NEW HAVEN NEWS.

New Haven, Ind., July 1.—John and Al Smith, Lee Tustison, Neal Mahoney, George and James Hazelet went to Hamilton lake Saturday night. As the auto truck was returning with a portion of the crowd Sunday evening, an accident at the top of a long hill put the machine completely out of commission. They had just started down the hill when a chain broke and the brakes refusing to work, the machine ran away, striking a telephone pole at the foot of the hill. No one was injured and the boys came home on the Wabash from Butler. John and Al Smith will remain at Hamilton this week.

The fire of last Saturday was the worst in the history of New Haven and Saturday evening and Sunday the ruins were viewed by thousands of people from the country and surrounding towns. The chair factory, which occupied the old Schneller stave factory buildings, will not be rebuilt. The loss of this factory is a severe blow to the town. Many of the fifty employes are leaving town to seek employment. Just what the Elastic Plaster company will do has not been determined.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Luke 7:1-17.

1 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this.

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee; but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his dispiples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all; and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about.

TUESDAY, JULY 1, 1913.

What the Sane Fourth Is Doing.

The past few years have noted a widespread advance of the "sane Fourth" idea. Hundreds of American cities, Fort Wayne among the number, have fallen in line on the movement. In many of these places the prohibition against the use of explosives is absolute. Others have merely forbidden the larger and presumably more dangerous types of explosive, while still others allow fireworks displays by special permit of the city government.

If there be those who are inclined to resent this restraint, a little examination of carefully tabulated figures showing the steady lessening of injury and death in the sane celebration of the nation's birthday anniversary should make its cheerful acceptance unanimous. Here are the very graphic figures for the past ten years:

Year.	—Deaths— From Tetanus.	From Other Causes.	Total.	—Injuries.— Loss of Sight.	Loss of One Eye.	Loss of Legs, Arms or Hands.	Loss of Fingers, One or more.	Other Injuries.	Total Non-Fatal Injuries.	Total Persons Dead or Injured.
1911 Totals	10	47	57	8	26	30	83	1,399	1,546	1,603
1910 Totals	67	64	131	7	33	26	114	2,612	2,792	2,923
1909 Totals	125	90	215	16	36	41	176	4,823	5,092	5,307
1908 Totals	55	108	163	11	93	57	184	5,115	5,460	5,623
1907 Totals	62	102	164	12	75	57	237	3,868	4,249	4,413
1906 Totals	75	83	158	22	72	56	227	4,931	5,308	5,466
1905 Totals	87	95	182	25	106	80	221	4,562	4,994	5,176

1903 Totals	406	60	466	10	75	54	174	3,670	3,983	4,449
Total for 10 Years..	984	776	1760	138	598	475	1667	35,479	38,357	40,11

Nor can it be justly claimed that the elimination of the deadly explosive has in any way lessened the popular interest in the celebration of the day. Somehow after all we are led to wonder why the fathers came to adopt a form of celebration that demanded as the measure of its patriotic fervor so frightful a list of casualty as was inevitably the result under the old regime.

Fort Wayne is clearly entitled to the very best municipal government it is able to obtain, and the temper of the people plainly indicates that they are going to make final selections upon the basis of their judgment of the men presented for public trust, regardless of any party label they may bear in a contest in which party label has no proper place. The proposed independent non-partisan ticket will appeal to the voters or fail to appeal to them just in proportion to the degree in which it seems to overtop or fails to measure up to the nominees already in the field. The personal equation is going to count in the coming contest as never before in Fort Wayne.

During the heated term Fort Wayne policemen are to be permitted to cast off the heavy blue uniform coats and blossom out in uniform blue shirt waists. Doubtless the policemen will be more than eager to exchange some degree of their distinguished appearance for a bit of comfort, and who can blame them?

There seems to be no popular doubt that the type of lobbying charged by the voluble Mr. Mulhall is of the "insidious" variety. What is now of most concern is how far he is able to go in proving its existence.

Let's all agree to a unanimous verdict on the versatility of the weather man and plead with him to cease exerting himself

LIVE LONGER? MARRY.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

When the New York state health department first made the announcement, based on a study of its vital statistic, that men and women live longer when married, it was regarded lightly as not quite proved. But now that Chicago adds its testimony that the death rate among Chicago bachelors is nearly 30 per cent. higher than among husbands and nearly 40 per cent. higher among spinsters than wives, it seems worth more serious consideration.

And why should it not be so? The bachelor grabs his food where he can, he keeps all sorts of hours, takes no care of himself or his health and generally speaking is deemed a bad risk. Not so the happy married man. He is under strict supervision all the time (unless he escapes once in a while). His food, his hours, his habits and his health are tenderly guarded by a vigilant guardian. Why should he not live longer than the nomad bachelor without these protecting influences?

About the greater discrepancy between spinsters and wives? Well, for one thing, the wives as a rule do not have to worry about ways and means, although cynics may object that they can find a good deal more to worry about when they have a husband and family to look after. The suggestion that the higher mortality among spinsters may be due to broken hearts comes of course from a bachelor. Contentment has probably most to do with the difference in favor of the wife. Having a home and all absorbing interests that take her out of herself normally conduce to longevity.

But, however, the reason may be, the hope held out by the New York and Chicago statisticians of longer life for the married will be joyous news in this month of June brides.

INCREASE OF DRY TERRITORY.

(F. C. Iglehart, in Review of Reviews.)

It is generally thought that Germany drinks more beer than any other nation in the world. This is a mistake. Germany comes second. The United States consumes 1,851,000,000 gallons of beer each year, which is 100,000,000 gallons more than Germany's consumption. Russia leads the world in its use of distilled liquors and the United States comes second with its consumption of 133,000,000 gallons. Although the United States is first as a beer drinking nation and second as a consumer of distilled spirits among the nations of the world, the liquor dealers of America are having a desperate fight for the life of their traffic.

The saloon has been expelled from one-half of the population and from two-thirds of the geographical area of the country. In 1808 there were 3,500,000 people living in territory where the drink traffic had been outlawed; in 1900 the number had increased to 18,000,000; in 1908, or only eight years after the number had doubled to 36,000,000 and today there are 46,029,750 persons, or a fraction over one-half of the population of the country, living in no-license territory. In the last five years the no-license population has increased a little over 10,000,000, which is more than 10 per cent. of the total population of the nation, and 80 per cent. increase in the number living in dry districts. Since 1868 the population of the country has doubled, while the number of inhabitants of dry territory has increased over thirteenfold.

THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION.

(Kansas City Times.)

A national industrial commission can be as valuable or as valueless as the quality of its membership determines.

The quality of the commission, as a whole, that President Wilson has appointed prophesies for it a prominent and useful part in the momentous activities of this period.

The commission will necessarily take its tone in chief measure from that third part of it which stands specifically for neither employers nor employes, but is stamped "unclassified" and represents only the general public interest. Of this third part of the commission the members are Mr. Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, chairman of the commission; Prof. John R. Commons, of Wisconsin, and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, of New York. That combination induces confidence in both the purpose and the capability of the commission.

Mrs. Harriman represents the ever increasing number of women who are taking an intelligent and sympathetic interest—an active, working interest—in the social, political and industrial problems of the time.

Mr. Walsh has the gift of clearing the central fact from its encumbering details; he has executive ability; he has an intense faith in the plain people, and he has a long record of social service to qualify him for the work ahead.

Professor Commons is probably the best fitted man in the United States to help to guide such a commission along sure and progressive and constructive paths. He has the resource of profound investigation and study combined with large practical experience in dealing with just such questions as this commission is bound to grapple with.

SEVERE ITCHING AND BURNING

Eczema Began With Pimples on Lower Limbs. Constantly Tormented. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured in Ten Days.

203 Walnut St., Hillsboro, Ill. — "My child had a breaking out on the lower limbs which developed into eczema. The eczema began with pimples which contained yellow corruption and from the child's clothing they were greatly irritated. They seemed to burn, which made the child scratch them, resulting in a mass of open places. They made her so cross and fretful that it was impossible to keep her quiet. They caused her to lose much sleep and she was constantly tormented by severe itching and burning.

"I tried several well-known remedies, but got no relief until I got a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, which did so much good that I got a large quantity that cured her in ten days after she had been affected for two months." (Signed) Mrs. Edith Schwartz, Feb. 28, 1913.

A GUINEA PIG HELPED IN THE DISCOVERY OF THE GERM THAT CAUSES DANDRUFF

When Drs. Lasser and Bishop made a pomade by mixing scales of dandruff and vaseline, which they afterwards rubbed on a guinea pig, they were contributing to science more than they knew. The application of the salve caused the pig to lose its hair and become bald.

This was merely one of the preliminary steps which made possible the discovery of Newbro's Herpicide. After establishing beyond question the existence of the dandruff germ, a remedy was needed to kill this parasite.

There was nothing which would do this until Newbro's Herpicide was placed upon the market. Being the first recognized remedy for dandruff, it has long been called the "original remedy." Herpicide eradicates dandruff, prevents falling hair and stops itching of the scalp. Don't take a substitute; you can always get the genuine article.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications may be obtained at good barber shops.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

GREAT RECORD MADE

The Lincoln Life will give a banquet to its directors and to the heads of leading financial institutions of the city at the Country club next Monday night.

A pretty home wedding took place on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Erickson, of Miner street, when their granddaughter, Miss Minnie Erickson, and Mr. Dalton Myers, of Bluffton, were united in marriage. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Samuel Waggenhals, pastor of Trinity English Lutheran church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Vivian Erickson, and the groom by Mr. Harry Pervis, of Van Wert, O. The rooms were tastefully decorated with daisies and palms, with the exception of the dining room. There pink roses and white iris were used in charming effect. Refreshments were served, and then the bride and groom left for their home in Bluffton, where the house is ready for occupancy. The groom is a graduate in pharmacy from the Ohio State university, and he is employed in Bluffton as a drug clerk. The bride is a capable young woman of wholesome and sweet nature.

NEAR MILLION TO TAX VALUATION

Board of Review Winding Up Its Work for the Present Year.

NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Before the day ends the county board of review will have completed its labors for 1913 and will have added near a million dollars to the tax valuation of all property in Allen county.

The corporations have made good returns in almost all cases and these have contributed something to the total gain.

Business houses have given satisfactory reports save in a few cases and their showing is considered good.

Personal property to the value of probably not less than $300,000 has been added to the duplicate.

The total valuation of all property for taxation in Allen county was $55,571,225. This year it will be a million more.

Let Road Contracts.

The board of commissioners today let contracts for the construction of the Boehnke road and the Fackler road, both in Madison township. The Erie Stone company got both contracts, the first for $9,999 and the second for $4,740. The Boehnke road is 10,630 feet and the Fackler road 5,350 in length. W. H. Boehnke will superintend both contracts.

Two Divorces Flied.

Elbert C. Green has commenced suit for divorce in the superior court against Olive B. Green. They were married in 1896 and separated last April. He charges that her jealousy was such as to drive him out of business by her conduct.

In the superior court Nellie M. Nesbitt sues Charles M. Nesbitt for divorce. They separated last December after half a year together. She says he was cruel and inhuman and constantly unkind.

For injuries he alleges his horse and wagon sustained as the result of the defendant's fault, Albert Overly has sued the Nickel Plate railway for $100 damages.

William T. Fowles, et al., have sued Weil Brothers on contract for $200.

Klaehn and Melching have sued Al Bowman on note for $135.

The will of Marie Bahrdt has been filed for probate. The property is left to the children.

Judge Eggeman, of the circuit court, has inaugurated his vacation at Rome City.

The Eagle Manufacturing company, a concern organized here to manufacture auto gang plows, has filed its articles with County Recorder Hurah.

Judge Yaple, of the superior court, has returned from Michigan, whither he was called by the death of a brother. During his absence Attorney Howard Townsend occupied the superior bench.

HELP FOR POOR INDIANS.

Controller O. K.'s $900 Doctor Bill for Blind Redskin.

Washington, July 1.—Uncle Sam is just as much a protector and guardian of the life and welfare of his Indian wards as a parent is of his child. This principle of responsibility was proclaimed by George E. Downey, controller of the treasury, in overruling the appeal of Robert W. Wooley, new auditor for the interior department, for a reversal of the controller's decision approving a $900 bill of Dr. George P. Sampson for treating and nursing a blind Indian. Charley Walker, a blind Navajo and ward of the government, deserted by his guide on the approach of a train, was run over. Dr. Sampson amputated his left leg and right foot and cared for him for three months. "This was an emergency if there ever was one," said Mr. Downey; "the Indian had to be cared for as a matter of humanity. Could a father escape liability for services rendered his child under similar circumstances? He could not."

WOULD WED IF PERMITTED.

Kansas Couple Refused Marriage Rite by Church.

Atchison, Kan., July 1.—Although both parties to a $25,000 breach of marriage contract suit filed here recently say they are willing to wed, the suit will go on. Miss Mary Falk, of Purcell, alleges that she entered into a verbal contract to marry William Burke, of Troy, a few months ago. Both parties are Catholics, and after the bans were announced three times and the wedding arranged, the prospective bridegroom failed to show up. The church officers say they will not marry Burke because he is unable to procure a sworn statement from his mother in Ireland certifying to the time of his baptism in the Catholic church. Burke says he will marry Miss Mary Falk any time, and, in her petition for the suit, Miss Falk says she is still willing to marry Burke.

FINDS A HERMIT'S $16,000.

Man, Who Dies Neglected and in Want, Moderately Rich.

Huntington, Pa., July 1.—When an unidentified tramp received no response as he knocked on the door of the cabin of Willis Browning, a hermit, on the ridge across from the Barree Forge, he opened the door. There he found the recluse in the last throes of death by pneumonia, and before the neighboring farmers could be summoned Browning was dead. In the pockets of a coat in the cabin was $16,000, all but $1,000 being in big bank notes. Browning came here five years ago, and talked with no one but the storekeeper from whom he bought supplies, never told where he came from and no living relatives are known. The money has been placed in bank, awaiting the arrival of some heir.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE AIRDOME.

Popular Place of Amusement Again Opens With Good Bill of Fun.

The first performance of this season at the Airdome, East Berry street met with a good audience last night, and people who braved the heat declared they had really found a cool spot in which they could be entertained. There are four short acts in the bill this week, and each is a lively bit of vaudeville of the popular brand. Two of the acts are of the talking and singing kind. Frank and Edith Long start the laughs, going through with their singing and dancing and incidental talking act. Edith Ward has a number of jingles that meet with favor, and Wilbur and Wright are of acrobatic order, and present some difficult feats. They are followed by Gilmore and Castle, comedians who come out in black face. These two men were featured with George Evans' "Honey Boy" last season, and they have a scream. Prof. Dicey keeps the piano going in his first-class ragtime vaudeville way that always keeps the audience in a cheerful mood. Then followed moving pictures. And all of this under the sky, with a chance to smoke and take off one's coat and be comfortable. Seven evenings a week, at 10 cents admission.

Hickman—Castell.

A marriage of interest to Fort Wayne friends took place at the home of Mrs. Anna Castell, of Angola, on June 28, at high noon when the Rev. Herbert S. Nickerson read the wedding service which united in marriage her daughter, Veva Beatrice, to Mr. Frank S. Hickman, son of Mrs. Emma J. Hickman, of this city. Mrs. Phosa Fairfield sang, "On Promise Me," just before the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march, played by Prof. Alfred Holsworth. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de meteor trimmed with Princess Louise lace and carried a bouquet of white Madonna lilies. The bridal veil was shirred into a cap and it was held to the hair with syringa blossoms. Little Garnet Bly, only niece of the groom, dressed in a dainty white frock, carried a basket of pink roses. The basket was one that was used in a similar service over thirty years ago at the marriage of the bride's mother. Master Thomas Stanley Hall, two year old nephew of the bride, had the honor of carrying the wedding ring in a calla lily. According to the bride's wish the ring used was her mother's wedding ring. The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Lois Castell as bridesmaid and Mrs. Nellie C. Hall as matron of honor. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. Browns. The bridesmaid was beautifully gowned in pink crepe de meteor and carried a bouquet of white and pink Canterbury bells. The matron of honor was dressed in white embroidered voile over a pink slip and carried pink roses. The decorations were pink and white in color and were arranged by Miss Jennie Seelye, of Ann Arbor, Mich., with whom the bride made her home during the time she was a student in the university. Particularly noticeable were the aisles made for the bridal procession. Foilage was used and white pedestals held pardiniares of roses. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the veranda, which had been screened with small branches of trees and partook of a sumptuous dinner. The bride's table was adorned with pink candles and roses. A group of college friends of the bride occupied one table by themselves. They were Misses Nellie Cary, Maude Schoville, Carrie Cline, Lily Kohl, Mabel Suton, Grace Crain, Mrs. Phosa Fairfield and Mr. and Mrs. George Anspaugh. Out of town guests were Mrs. Fannie Parish, Cedar Falls, Iowa; Mrs. Jessie Pariah Hoar, Iowa City, Iowa; Mrs. Sarah Merriman, Fort Atkinson, Wis.; Miss Bertha Nicholls, Stoughton, Wis.; Miss Martha Wagner, Monroe, Mich.; Mrs. Nana Slusher, Logansport; Miss Mildred Stocking, Peru; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dugaid, Fremont. The bride is said to be an exceptionally charming young woman of high principles and she has just completed a post-graduate course with the M. A. degree. The bride's nobility of character and high ideals have won her many admiring friends. Mr. Hickman was for many years engaged in the Pennsylvania company service prior to his entering the ministry of the Methodist church, about two years ago. While in Fort Wayne Mr. Hickman was intimately connected with local church activities. He is now a student pastor at the DePauw university. Mr. and Mrs. Hickman will be at home at 503 East Hanna street, Greencastle, (Ind.) after July 14.

Bartmess—Welch.

Miss Nina E. Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Welch, of 712 Van Buren street, and Mr. Meigs W. Bartmess, formerly of the state of Oregon, but now of Pittsburg, were married on Monday evening at half past 7 o'clock by Rev. C. Claud Travis, pastor of the Wayne street M. E. church. Neither bride nor groom was attended, but Miss Alvina Bartmess, of Hood River, Ore., a sister of the groom, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Dawning" before the bride and groom entered the living room, where the marriage service was performed. Miss Dorothy Waltz played the Mendelssohn wedding march. The bride was gowned in a beautiful princess lace hung over crepe de meteor and a corsage of over crepe de meteor and corsage bouquet of bride roses and swansonia lent a pretty finishing touch to her appearance. After the marriage an informal reception was held to which relatives and intimate friends were invited. Refreshments were served amid pretty decorations of roses, ferns and smilax. A little later in the evening the bride and groom left on the Pennsylvania for their wedding trip, which will include brief visits to eastern cities and a ten weeks' stay at Nakopa camp, on the Allegheny river. Both bride and groom are members of the camp and have spent part of vacation times there. After the first of October Mr. and Mrs. Bartmess will be at home in Pittsburg, as Mr. Bartmess is an electrical engineer employed by the Westinghouse company. The bride has been a teacher in the public schools and is a pretty looking and attractive young woman who has many friends. For traveling the bride is wearing a blue French serge with hat of bronze trimmed with a French wreath.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES M. KICKLEY.

At their home in Hoagland avenue Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Kickley celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage last evening by entertaining relatives and friends to the number of forty. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Kickley was their only child, Mrs. Albert Bowser, and her husband and their two children, Bon Silene and Albert, jr. The Kickley home was beautifully decorated for the dinner, which was served at 7 o'clock. Many roses and sweetpeas, both pink and white, were used and they filled silver baskets on each table. Smilax and plumosus wreathed the chandeliers and gave a touch of decoration to the dinner tables. Covers were laid for forty. Mr. and Mrs. Kickley were married in this city a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Kickley was Miss Flora Plattor before her marriage. Among the near relatives present were Joseph C. Kickley and Mrs. George Foulke, father of Mr. Kickley and mother of Mrs. Kickley. C. M. Kickley is a well known machinist of the Pennsylvania shops.

Mr. Jacobs and Miss Scherer were married on Sunday afternoon and after relatives had extended congratulations to the young couple at the home of the bride, they left for Chicago. The bride wore both for her wedding gown and traveling costume a tailored suit of gray Bedford cord with cream lace blouse and a white hemp hat trimmed with white and gray flowers. Shoes and gloves matched the suit and a corsage bouquet of bride roses gave the bridal touch to the stylish costume. Mr. Jacobs is manager of the Jacobs Music house and the bride is a well known pianist and teacher.

WIND SAVES CITY MUCH SUFFERING

Excessive Heat Still With Us, However, But is Due to Depart Soon.

MORE PROSTRATIONS

Brisk northwest winds brought temporary relief to Fort Wayne heat sufferers today, and W. S. Palmer, at the head of the local station of the United States weather bureau, declares that permanent relief will follow quickly, as a cooler temperature area is rapidly moving eastward from the territory west of the Mississippi river.

Fort Wayne, however, will continue to swelter today, with the temperature ranging from 90 to 95 degrees, but the mercury will not mount to such a record height as was noted Monday, when 98 degrees was registered. Mr. Palmer says that this will be the last day of such excessive heat, at least for a few days. He states that the high temperature of Monday was due to the cloudless skies and the southwest winds

It is predicted that the local heat wave will break up this evening with a thunder shower, to be followed by rain and cooler weather Wednesday.

Comparative temperatures are lower today than yesterday and during the entire morning the skies were partly cloudy, with a cooling northwest breeze. The relief, however, was only for short periods of time, for when the sun came out brightly and the wind wavered in its course for only a few moments, the heat was stifling. At 7 o'clock this morning the government thermometer registered 74 degrees, against 80 degrees at the corresponding hour Monday.

Suffering Intense.

Men, women and children, especially young babies, are suffering terribly from the excessive heat, according to reports received from all parts of the city, and late Monday afternoon two additional prostrations were reported. Herschel Bolyard, a carrier boy employed by The Sentinel, and residing at 2602 South Hanna street, was overcome while carring his paper route and was removed to his home in a critical condition. He is still in bad shape, but will recover.

John Pattee, 1222 McCleilan street, also succumbed to the terrific heat late Monday afternoon, at the General Electric works, where he is employed. He was removed to his home in an automobile and will be unable to resume his work for at least a week.

Kenneth Laughlin, a young man employed as messenger at the Pennsylvania shops, was overcome by the intense heat shortly before 5 o'clock Monday evening, and was prostrated. Medical aid was soon summoned and the lad was removed to his home. His condition is not serious.

Fell Into Water.

Another interesting case of heat prostration comes from Fred Entradocker, a pattern maker at the Pennsylvania. Mr. Entradocker was fishing Sunday afternoon in the St. Joe river, north of the city, when he was overcome by the heat, and fell into the water. Luckily the stream was very shallow where he fell and for about fifteen minutes he laid on his back in the water, until some boys found him and removed him to a place of safety. Mr. Entradocker had been wading in the river and when overcome was standing in about a foot of water. He quickly recovered from the attack, however, and has resumed his work at the shops.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

MR. AND MRS. CARL TRESSELT.

A wedding took place fifty years ago today in Iowa City, Ia., of which the anniversary is being celebrated at Rome City by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tresselt. Mr. Tresselt has lived in Fort Wayne since he was sixteen years of age and Mrs. Tresselt, whose maiden name was Auguste Siemon, came to Fort Wayne in 1862, from her home in Germany. Their wedding took place in Iowa City, Ia., as after a visit here, during which Miss Siemon had met and become engaged to Mr. Tresselt, she went to Iowa where she had a married sister living. In a few months Mr. Tresselt followed her and their wedding took place on Mr. Tresselt's natal anniversary. Today Mr. and Mrs. Tresselt are celebrating their golden wedding at their summer home at Rome City with their children and grandchildren with them. A daughter, Miss Ida Tresselt, and a son, Rev. Ferdinand Tresselt, pastor of Bethlehem Lutheran church at Detroit, Mich., with his wife and three sons and two grandchildren, Eric and Ilda Speckard, of Bay City, Mich., are all at the lake with them. Other relatives and a number of near friends are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tresselt today and are joining in extending congratulations. The entire married life of Mr. and Mrs. Tresselt has been spent in the same home, at 318 East Jefferson street. They have always been active members of St. Paul's Lutheran church and are among the best known of German Lutheran residents of the city. They spend their summers at their cottage, Sans Souci, at Rome City. Mr. Tresselt was born at Gross-Breitenbach, Germany, on July 1, 1837.

MESSENGER BOY'S SLOW TRIP BACK

Answers Call and Callee Does Him Out of a Good Bike.

TRICK WORKS WELL

At 2:40 this morning the district messenger service department of the Postal telegraph offices answered a hurry call for a boy, the call coming from the third floor of the Lau block, Calhoun and Washington streets. Presumably the boy in the blue uniform hurried, it being a hurry call. Anyway, he went on a bicycle.

As he entered the building a perfectly strange, also a perfectly courteous, man wished him the time of day—or night, to be explicit.

The messenger boy couldn't take his wheel up three flights of stairs so he left it at the curb and the man in the hall. Then he mounted. He could find nothing but darkness and silence. So he came down. He looked for bicycle. It was gone. So was the polite stranger.

There is no clue save a soft voice and courteous demeanor.

The Postal company's report is plaintive with the query to the police—"What shall we do tonight with both our bicycles gone?" From which it is inferred that there were two bicycles, two boys and two gentle-spoken strange men in dark hallways at moonset.

LIKE BIRDS IN THE AIR.

Wonderful Human Butterflies to Be Seen With Ringling Bros.

The "Human Butterfly" act, the brilliant and dangerous aerial spectacle which amazed France last winter is this year a feature of Ringling Brothers' shows. It will be seen in Fort Wayne on Saturday July 12, exactly as it was presented there. It was engaged by a foreign agent of the show at a sum of money equal to twice that ever paid for a circus attraction in the past.

The three famous Ty-Bell sisters created the act. Holding by the teeth to slender steel cords these Venus-like girls hang from the dome of the tent. By means of intricate machinery on the roof of the tent, they are made to dart, fly and circle through space with the grace and ease of birds while electric spot lights flood them with fantastic color designs. They are clothed in flowing robes of gossamerlike white silk and they wear long pinions of spun glass. The ethereal aspect of the spectacle is entrancing.

Even while spectators sit, bewildered by the sublime splendor of the sight above them, they do not for a moment lose sight of the daring and the danger involved. It is a thriller of the most pronounced type. It does not depend on a maze of ponderous machinery to give a death-trap suggestion. There is real and not merely the semblance of danger in the act. This fact is quite evident at first sight.

This is a high-priced act and an absolute departure from stereotyped aerialists. It must not be confounded with common iron-jaw performances that masquerade, by means of long skirts and ribbon showers, as novelties.

Others among the aerialists who add to the strength and the novelty of the show are the famous Klarkonians, the Flying Wards, the Richard sisters, the great La Fayette and the Nelson families.

The regular performance opens this year with a newly added spectacle telling the story of Joan of Arc on a stage bigger than a hundred ordinary theaters and with a cast of 1,200 persons. Also 600 horses and a trainload of special scenery is used. The spectacle in itself cost $500,000 and is attraction enough to fill the main tent if there were nothing else to be seen there. The circus proper, however, has been strengthened, the menagerie has been enlarged, and the morning parade is finer than ever.—Adv.

AT THE EMPRESS

H. H. Pattee's diving girls head this week's bill at the Empress theater which is proving a delight in all its features to the big audiences. The fair swimmers are stageland's most perfect women and their exhibition is spectacular in the extreme and is a novel exhibition of daring and beauty. A crystal tank containing 10,000 gallons of water is used for the act, and the stage setting is delightful. This act is different from anything that Fort Wayne audiences have been accustomed to in the line of vaudeville diving and swimming exhibitions, and a great surprise is in store for all who witness it. To tell now what this surprise is like would spoil the effect for those planning to witness the exhibition.

A special contest for boys will be staged this evening and several entries on the list promise to make the amateur diving competition an event of interest. On Friday night the diving contest will be open to female divers. The winners will be given silver loving cups.

George Lavender, the bulky comedian, is there from start to finish and succeeds not only in keeping the audience in a continuous uproar, but exhibits some lively steps for a big man.

In "The Janitor and the Maid," a novelty singing, talking and dancing number, Fields and LaAdelia give a delightful fifteen minutes' performance. The female member of this team is a toe dancer of great ability, and her steps prove a sensation. Marie Fitzgibbons, a fair comedienne, is another of those before the public who first makes herself agreeably acquainted with the audience, and then makes them join her in the entertainment. She has a clever line of dialect stories. The musical Lockwoods are artists of attainment and their act is pleasing and beautiful.

Another set of Fort Wayne moving pictures this week, with other interesting motion subjects, open and close the bill.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is a two-reel sensational entitled "The Guerilla Menace," filled wtih thrilling sensations. Carl Schmidt and Dick Hartzler and Shreve and Sternberger are the entertainers.

Wednesday, the great Imp, "The Angel of Death."

The Battle of Gettysburg—The picture was presented by the New York Motion Picture Corporation, and was produced by players of the Kay Bee and Broncho Film companies, under the direction of Thomas Ince.

Vivid in the extreme, the five reels of films depict every important move in that great battle, which eventually proved the turning point of the civil war. Founded on a pretty romance, the plot is carefully worked out, so that the battle itself is brought in merely as an incident to the love affairs of two young southerners.

Celebrated Boys' Band of Hicksville, O. at Robison Park July 4th.

Manager Williams, of Robison park has secured the celebrated Boys' Band, of Hicksville, Ohio, as one of his Fourth of July attractions. The band consists of forty members, each one a musician of ability. The Cincinnati Inquirer, speaking of the Big Tri-State Band Tournament held in that city recently, has the following to say of the band: "Harts' Boys' Band, of Hicksville, was the easy winner of the big prize of $350. The boys belong to the best families of Hicksville. Clad in maroon uniforms and knickerbockers, they made a fine appearance. Their rendition of ambitious musical numbers was remarkable."

The band will play at Robison park July Fourth, both afternoon and evening.—Adv.

TO HOLD IMPORTANT SESSION.

The regular meeting of the Northside Civic Improvement association will be held Wednesday night in the Bloomingdale school building, and the reports of a number of committees will be received. A committee, which was appointed at the last meeting to meet with the traction officials in an effort to secure better street car service for the northwest section of the Ninth ward, also will make its report tonight.

Winnie Lee Suggests How to Keep Dorothy's Chatter Within Reasonable Limits by Having a Daily Chattertime.

(By Winnie Lee.)

Dear John: Without your saying so, John, I know you dread chatter when you are tired. You may as well make up your mind first as last that Dorothy talks. The dear girl has been so in love with you that her tongue has been tied half the time, but in the intimacy of domestic affairs it will loosen with so many many matters of mutual interest to talk about. Therefore, from the start, you will have to take a firm stand.

More women undermine their husbands by useless chatter than in any other one way, and the best meaning of them will take poorly chosen times to broach anything which comes into their heads. I believe a word to Dorothy at the right time will not set the pace in the very beginning, and not hurt her feelings.

A man needs to sleep if he is to do good work next day. Let your wife understand the home comfort of herself means more to you than anything else on earth, and she will not bring forward anything to trouble your mind at the wrong time. If she does as she ought, she will not talk to anybody else where you can hear the noise, when your head is aching.

Through the nervousness of woman, man can be talked into the poorhouse; into a drinker's grave; into almost anything he can fall into.

Tell Dorothy gently but firmly that you want your mind clear for a chat with her, and try to set a time and a place for this daily talk, and she will readily learn when to let you alone and when to come forward.

Breakfast is no time to discuss the maid's shortcomings, though I have heard a wife do so. Have it understood that the meal upon which hangs so much of the day's success must be an hour of toast and cheer.

Yours as ever,

WINNIE.

LOCALS DEFEATED IN SECOND GAME

Young and Bowman Are Both Batted Hard All Over the Field.

STEIL CINCHES GAME

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 1.—The Fort Wayne Billikens are not only suffering from the heat today, but are wondering what the ultimate outcome of their series with the Grand Rapids sluggers will be, having gone down to defeat again in the game yesterday by a score of 7 to 4. A circuit drive by young Steil, the Black Stocking shortstop, with a runner on in the eighth, practically cinched the game for the Central league leaders in the second game of the series.

Until the eighth the battle was hard fought and the score was tied in the seventh. Grand Rapids secured one run in each of the first two innings, and two runs in the fifth, while Fort Wayne was on the firing line continuously until the seventh, with one run tallied in the third, fifth and sixth innings. The Summit City aggregation, however, could not recover after Steil's drive when the winnine three runs were shot around third and into home.

Young, the Fort Wayne right-hander, twirled, with Bowman in the box for the Black Stockings. Both were hit hard, long drives sending the fans into a state of wild rooting. Fort Wayne succeeded in securing five two-baggers to Grand Rapids' four. The fact is that Young was no worse than Bowman, but the latter had a little more luck on his side. The score:

WHAT ABOUT TRIS AND MR. COLLINS?

They Were Also There While Scribes Played Up Cobb and Jackson.

THEY ARE REAL BOYS

During the first tour of the east by the western clubs of the American league the baseball statisticians heralded daily the achievements of those eminent sons of swat, Tyrus Raymond Cobb and Joe Jackson, the purveyors of dope evidently forgetting that Edward Trowbridge Collins and Tristram Speaker were striking telling blows for their teams and doing even more valiant work with the willow than the two whaling westerners. The Georgia Peach hit at a .311 clip on the trip, the city in which he enjoyed his least success in manufacturing hits being Philadelphia. The Quaker city also was a hoodoo town for the clouting Clevelander, who hit for .286 on the jaunt. Jax's batting average shrunk when he faced Washington pitchers, but went up when he batted against the Boston boxmen.

Collins piled up an average of .377 at Shibe park against the western hurlers, batting most effectively in the St. Louis series and least so in the set-tos with the Naps.

Speaker, in the games at Fenway park, amassed a percentage of .373, having a record of .750 in the Detroit series, .312 in the St. Louis series, .300 in the Chicago series and .221 in the Cleveland series. The man who won the Chalmers American league trophy last year got 10 safeties in the games against the western teams, while Collins procured 20. E. Trowbridge scored 14 runs to Tris' 13. Cobb, in the games against the eastern teams, made the same number of hits and runs as Speaker, but went to bat 19 more times. Jackson's record was 10 tallies and 14 safeties in 49 journeys to the platter.

Collins led the quartet in timely hitting, driving in 10 runs as against nine for Cobb, seven for Speaker and six for Jackson. Cobb showed the way in long distance punching, his nine lengthy blows being good for 18 extra bases. Speaker got nine long clouts that yielded 14 extra bases, Jackson eight that yielded 14 and Collins seven that yielded 12.

Of these four men the one hardest to pitch to evidently is Speaker. He drew 14 passes and was winged once. Jackson trudged 12 times, many of the gifts he received being purposely awarded. Cobb got eight bases on balls and was hit once, and Collins secured six complimentaries and was hit twice. Oddly enough, Mack's second sacker passed through the 1912 campaign without once reaching first on a casualty pass.

In the intersectional clashes Cobb struck out seven times, Speaker thrice and Jackson and Collins each twice. The Clevelander was whiffed by Joe Wood and Walter Johnson, the Philadelphian by Willie Mitchell and Joe Lake.—Grand Rapids Herald.

THE "GREEN" PLAYERS GET ALONG VERY WELL.

Several ball players have broken into the big leagues who could neither read nor write. They were forced to work so early in life they never had an opportunity to enjoy the same advantages other youths did. It is amazing to see how well they get along, despite this handicap.

Generally one of their teammates will act as "social secretary," and will attend to all their correspondence for them. They also make it a point to accompany the players into the dining room any tip them off to what is on the bill of fare. Frequently the non-reader will listen to what the other fellows order, and languidly say: "Oh, bring me the same thing."

One chap, who is still playing ball, gets by splendidly in the dining cars—better than one would believe possible.

It's the custom on many lines to write out your order on a card furnished by the head waiter.

This fellow casually picks up the menu card on such occasions, glances it over with a bored look, and exclaims, "Let's have a sirloin steak, hashed brown potatoes and a cup off coffee."

Then he tosses the card aside.

He knows all diners furnish those three staples and generally has the same thing until the team hits a hotel again. Nobody, to watch him, would have the slightest suspicion he couldn't make out a word on the bill of fare. He is a regular little wonder.

"MEXICAN JOE" RIVERS IN ACTION.

The accompanying fighting pose of "Mexican Joe" Rivers, the lightweight who battles Willie Ritchie for the title in San Francisco on July 4, shows the boxer as he actually appears when in the ring. The pose of the arms, the face and the crouch are all characteristic of the Hungster who hopes to annex Ritchie's title.

Rivers is powerfully built and has all the foundation for a great fighter, except, it has been charged, lack of nerve. He backs up under fire. When things are going his way and he is doing the leading, he is like a tiger, smashing home his terrific right that carries a sleep wallop. A right swing, with all the weight of the body behind it, and ability to deliver it from any position is his greatest asset. He is fast and a good defensive and offensive boxer. Ritchie will have no cinch when he mixes with him July 4. While he may win, and probably will, he will know he has been in a fight.

M'GRAW'S TONGUE GETS HIM BEATING

Pitcher Brennan Says That He Was Exasperated Beyond Endurance.

THE NATIONAL SCORES

Philadelphia, July 1.—Declaring that he was exasperated beyond the limit of endurance during yesterday's game between Philadelphia and New York, by taunts from Manager John McGraw, Pitcher Brennan today attempted to explain why he gave the manager such a terrible beating as the latter walked across the diamond at the close of the game.

McGraw was knocked down by two blows upon the jaw. He was walking across the field talking with another Philadelphia player. Nearly all the spectators had left the grounds. Suddenly Brennan sprang toward him and swung his right hand to McGraw's jaw, landing above his chin and followed it up quickly with a second blow from his left hand which landed below the ear. McGraw dropped before he could see who hit him. Later he declared that he must have been kicked by the other players who had quickly pulled Brennan away. They declare that only two blows were struck. McGraw soon recovered and went to his hotel.

SHAMROCK LINE HAS OLD TIMERS

Local Club Will Give Hicksville Merry Battle on the Fourth.

IT WILL BE BOY'S DAY

The Fort Wayne Shamrocks will clash July Fourth at League park with the Hicksville Browns, champions of the Trolley league. The crack Fitzcharles will twirl for the visitors, and the local club's line-up will be strengthened by the signing of McKee and Wambsganss and the return of Christ Chambers. With these fellows in form the champs from across the line will find a tough argument.

To Be Boys' Day.

The Fourth of July will be boys' day at League park, and Manager Cleary has made arrangements for all youngsters under 16 years of age to be admitted free. It will be a great day for the little fellows.

Hicksville fans will be here in force as word comes from the Ohio village that practically all the automobiles in town have been engaged by fans to come to Fort Wayne.

The Shamrocks have won the first two games of the city series, and the best three in five carries away the honors. One more win out of the next three and the Shamrocks will continue to hold the title of the city semi-professional champions.

Ince Robbins declares that he is ready to take his turn, and when this southpaw is right, there is always something doing.

ALL MANAGERS INTERESTED.

Watch With Eagerness Outcome of Local Games at Grand Rapids.

According to Grand Rapids scribes whose specialty is sport, whatever Fort Wayne takes away from their city in the series now on, it will have coming, provided that what the local club gets is a beating. They declare that Fort Wayne is the club Grand Rapids must beat to win the pennant, and it is said that President Essick, Manager Smith and all the Grand Rapids players feel the same way about it. In opening the series of Fort Wayne and Grand Rapids, and in speaking of the future games on their home grounds, the Herald says:

"Jimmy Burke's men are playing at a great pace, despite their setback at the hands of Terre Haute, and with their excellent pitching staff and formidable array of sluggers, they are sure to put up a grand fight to the finish. Springfield follows Fort Wayne for four more hard battles, while the Dayton Vets will bring their hospital ward here a week from today to wind up the festivities. Johnny Nee's flood survivors are having more tough luck in the injury department than all the other clubs put together. Infielder Martin, Manager Nee and Infielder Jack Leber are out through injuries, the hardest blow coming last week when Leber sustained a broken ankle.

"Lady Linda," by Amy Brooks, author of the "Randy Books," is the latest offering of M. A. Donahue & Co., of Chicago, to the book reading public. The story is replete with charming situations and holds the interest of the young readers from cover to cover. The illustrations are in pretty colors. List price of the book is $1.00.—Adv.

PLAN DETAILS OF BIG TENNIS MEET

Many Entries Expected for the Annual Northern Indiana Tournament.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

The tennis committee of the Fort Wayne Country club is rapidly completing all arrangements for the annual northern Indiana tennis meet to be held on the local courts July 21 to 26, and it is expected that entries will be pouring in not later than the last of this week. It is thought a good many people from outside of the city will be here to battle for the up-state titles, as the event is open to all bonafide amateurs, whether they are residents of the city or not. Members of the tennis committee are George Baible, W. A. Burrett, J. R. McCulloch, B. W. Shryock and F. E. Hoffman.

On Independence Day.

The Country club will be the scene of some lively golfing on July Fourth when President A. F. Hall's "Sure Winners" stack up against ex-President Bond's "Never Losers" in the annual P. and X. match over eighteen holes. There will be no handicapping and in selecting players the captain will take all the players whose names follow odd numbers on the handicap board, and the other all whose names follow the even numbers.

On the evening of the Fourth about $200 worth of beautiful fireworks will be sent skyward from the club house. The members are planning to make the independence day celebration at the club one of the most interesting ever held.

Pairings for Saturday.

On Saturday play will be resumed in the second flight of the president's tournament, the golfers being paired as follows: F. S. Fisher and W. P. Breen, S. C. Bond and F. L. Smock. F. I. Brown and J. N Kuhns. John Morris and Paul Peters In the first flight played last Saturday the following were eliminated: A. E. Smith, B. Paul Mossman, H. C. Rockhill, W. E. Doud, H. J. Miller, W. T. Shepherd and F J Behrer The third flight of the president's handicap will be played July 12, and the finals over thirty-six holes on July 19.

BELIEVES NOW IS HIS OPPORTUNITY

M'Farland Sees Title on Way Through Raise in the Light Limit.

TO GO AFTER RITCHIE

New York, July 1.—The oft repeated statement that raising the lightweight limit will be the means of making a champion out of Packey McFarland is about to come true, according to the Chicago wizard, who cannot find appropriate terms to express his delight at the prospect. Immediately upon hearing that Ritchie had jumped the weight scale up a notch McFarland got into communication with Promotor Coffroth regarding a match on Labor day, provided Ritchie wins over Rivers. According to the Chicago boxer the promoter gave him his assurance that he would do all in his power to arrange the match.

"If Ritchie will agree to let me weigh 134 two or three hours before ringtime that is all I ask," says Packey. "I know just how I stand with Ritchie. We have often boxed together. I don't want to boast, but when we meet there'll be a new champion."

But McFarland's rejoicing seems to be somewhat premature. Ritchie also knows how they compare and as long as the present champion is guided by Billy Nolan he will not lack ways and means to avoid committing suicidistic suicide.

Possibly it will be just as well if McFarland never attains his ambition. When it comes to keeping the title out of competition Ritchie is bad enough, but McFarland would probably be worse. Even now, although he holds no title, he only consents to meet a good man about once a year, and then he demands a sum that no other boxer not a champion would think of asking. He never makes a match in which the conditions are not all in his favor, and if he had a valuable title to protect he might never fight at all.

SPECIALIST

REDUCED FEES

I Cure Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic Diseases

For the purpose of proving the advantages of methods in the treatment and cure of PELVIC, NERVOUS and CHRONIC diseases I will not only give to every one who is anxious to obtain a cure and who will call at my office before July 10th, a careful and thorough examination FREE of CHARGE, but to further demonstrate to the public the rapidity and thoroughness of the CURES I make, I will treat any case I accept for a CURE between now and July 10th AT A GREATLY REDUCED FEE.

Are you physically able to do your part and keep your place in the procession, or is there some disease which is slowly, but surely, undermining your vitality and unfitting you for performing your part of the duties which every man owes to his country, to his neighbors, to his family, his loved ones and to himself?

Do you think you are doing your duty by neglecting an opportunity to rid yourself of the shackles of disease?

Every man who does less than he should do at his desk, in the shop or on the farm is weak in some way.

I have found that the man who is unable to accomplish all that he hopes or expects is often the silent sufferer from some PELVIC or CHRONIC disease which is slowly, but surely, wrecking his nervous system and as surely unfitting him for actively competing with his fellowmen.

We all have a duty to perform or an ambition to fulfill, and those who are weakest must inevitably drop behind.

Do you want to be one of these, or do you want to take your place in the world that nature intended you should?

Years of experience in the treatment of PELVIC, NERVOUS and CHRONIC diseases have enabled me to perfect methods which will not only cure these DEEP-SEATED diseases in which the ordinary methods have failed, but will restore to a normal and healthy condition the broken-down and devitalized NERVOUS system.

I PERSONALLY TREAT EVERY CASE MYSELF.

HUNDREDS of satisfied patients have testified to my ability to cure these CHRONIC and DEEP-SEATED diseases in which the ordinary methods have failed.

FREE EXAMINATION—To any sufferer who honestly desires to get well I will give a careful and thorough examination FREE OF CHARGE, and if your case is curable I will make my fee as low as possible and consistent with honest, scientific treatment. If you cannot be cured I will frankly tell you so, as I have no time to waste on incurable diseases.

I learn the exact condition of the rectum, the bladder and every organ of the genito-urinary system. This in itself is of the highest importance, inasmuch as a broken-down nervous system and many more of the troubles of the STOMACH, LIVER, HEART, KIDNEYS, ETC., are reflex and are the direct results of some PELVIC LESION OR DISEASE.

TUBERCULOSIS now curable by the wonderful intravenous treatment which I am using. Call in and I will show you reports of desperate cases that have been cured and prove my assertion beyond all doubt.

VARICOCELE, STRICTURE, RUPTURE, PILES, FISTULA, ETC., cured without knife and without detention from business.

BLOOD POISON—I use only the most advanced methods in the treatment of Blood Poison and kindred diseases.

ECZEMA and other skin diseases quickly cured.

PROSTATIC ENLARGEMENT results from inflammation. I reduce the enlargement and have been able to cure about 90 per cent. of the cases. Consultation and All Communications Strictly Confidential.

Green, cashier of the Indiana Bank and Trust company, when a forged check was presented to him for payment for $5,700 by a Chicago clearing house, who had received it from one of their banks in Ohio. Several hours later the cashier received a telegram from a town in southern Indiana asking him if the bank would pay a certified check for $1,700, dated June 19 and signed by Floyd Clemons. Another forged check for $2,250 was presented at the same time to another local bank and turned over to the Indiana Bank and Trust company for payment.

Checks in all three instances were signed by William Aboose, made payable to the order of Floyd and Sadie Clemons, with a forged certification by A. B. Greene, cashier of the local bank. The forger used checks issued by the Indiana Bank and Trust company.

A VEGETABLE MADE $150,000 FOR A SINGER

A young European singer, who had suffered with indigestion, with the help of a famous French doctor (who told him of a vegetable having marvelous digestive properties) made a sauce containing this vegetable, which he used with his food and in the cooking. It was pronounced by the best cooks in Europe as a sauce unexcelled. The sauce was made by a company who paid the singer for the wonderful recipe. So great and immediate has been the success of Waw-Waw that it is to be found in all parts of the world. A few years ago the famous Waw-Waw was unknown in America, yet now it is to be found in the principal hotels, railroads and homes throughout this country. It adds zest and piquancy when used in the cooking, and added to soups, salads, hot and cold meats and fish it is unequalled, and at the same time you will see how easily you can digest anything. It is absolutely unlike all other sauces. Although resembling in taste a Worcestershire, yet the ingredients used are quite different. Waw-Waw (an obsolete South American word for vegetable) is purely vegetable and is guaranteed absolutely pure. Miss Rita Jolivet, the wonderful actress, writes: "The best sauce I have ever tasted and helps my digestion wonderfully." A 25-cent bottle from your local grocer will soon convince you how much more you will enjoy your food, and how easily you can digest anything and everything.

INCREASED THE FORCE

Nine Young Men Added to Engineering Corps of Pennsylvania.

SHOPS CLOSED ON ACCOUNT OF HEAT

Employes of One of Bass Car Wheel Rooms Ask for Shut Down.

The engineering department of the Western division of the Pennsylvania has been increased to twenty men. This is because of the great amount of work on hand at present. The new men are I. B. Long, O. J. Craig and L. M. Schwab, who are permanent additions, and Boyd Lipsett, O. H. Gosswein, R. C. Kincer, H. J. Fruit, F. R. Polk and Quintin Campbell, who are university students who will work only during the summer vacation months. The maintenance of way department is handicapped by lack of laborers. Sixty or more foreign laborers who were employed on elevation work in the city quit Monday morning at the command of the interpreters.

HARKENRIDER GETS PRESENT.

Former Depot Policeman Remembered by Station Employes.

Yesterday Henry Harkenrider received as a present a fine meerschaum pipe and a sufficient quantity of high grade tobacco to keep the smoker in operation several weeks. Mr. Harkenrider, who was a member of the city police force for over twenty-five years, had charge of the south depot beat for several years and during that time won the esteem of all the depot attaches and when it was announced that yesterday would be his last day in active service on the force, the "boys" conceived and carried out this method of showing their appreciation of his services and friendship. Among those who contributed in the purchase of the smoking outfit were the agents, the station masters, baggage men and car inspectors of the Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Harkenrider left today for Canyon City, Col., expecting to remain there and at other places in the mountains four months. It will be remembered that Henry Harkenider has been retired to the policemen', pension list. The next one to be retired will be Charles F. Spillner, who has been in the service twenty-two years and is now the oldest officer in point of service on the force.

ADDING TWO CLERKS.

Nickel Plate Office Force to Be Increased.

The semi-monthly pay day and other additional clerical work at the Nickel Plate offices has created a necessity for two more clerks—one in Supt. S. K. Blair's office and one in Supt. H. N. Williams' office. The latter has already secured his man in the person of Edwin D. Stahl, but at noon today Mr. Blair had not employed the new man for his department. Mr. Stahl was formerly employed by the Pennsylvania, first in the signal department and later in the office of Chief Clerk Herman Kucher, of the division engineer department.

TOO HOT TO WORK.

And Employes in One Car Wheel Shop Laid Off.

There were no prostrations in the car wheel shops at the Bass foundry yesterday, but the heat was intense and the men suffered greatly. Believing that today would be as hot as was yesterday, only a small proportion of the force in car wheel shop No. 1 showed up for work this morning and at the request of some who did report for duty, Supt. William Klingman decided to suspend operations in that room today. Other departments of the foundry were in operation, but with a greatly decreased force. The employes in the blacksmith shop also complained yesterday of the heat and many failed to show up for work, but the shops were in operation today. The boiler shop and the machine shop were less affected by the heat, though in each there were many vacancies. Foreman John Norton, of the pattern shop, reported every man on duty.

APPRENTICES ADVANCED A STEP.

The semi-annual shift of apprentices in the Pennsylvania shops took place today and the men affected are proportionately nearer the attainment of their ambitions. None completed their apprenticeship, but the next shift will transfer two to the journeyman machinists' ranks. The young fellows transferred are: C. Kohlinger to the erecting shop; J. L. Christen to the machine shop, C. L. Pappert to the erecting shop, J. J. Cochoit to the round house and H. F. Nichter to the erecting shop.

PENNSY VETERAN DEAD.

Sunday occurred the death in Florida of John W. Claybaugh, aged 73 years and for forty years connected with the freight department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg. Many Fort Wayne men will recall memories of the deceased, with whom they came in touch in a business way at some period of his long service with the company. He had risen from a minor position to the office of master of transportation, but three years ago, when he attained the age of 70, he was pensioned.

ANNUAL INVENTORY ON.

F. S. Bates and seven assistants from the auditor's office of the Wabash are engaged in taking an inventory of the stock at the Wabash shops and yards and will not complete the work until tomorrow night. R. S. Augsburger, traveling storekeeper of the Wabash, is also here in connection with the inventory work. Mr. Bates has had charge of the inventory work for the Wabash for five or six years and has been here every summer for that number of seasons.

MET AT COLUMBIA CITY.

Supt. W. M. Wardrop, of the Pennsylvania, and Supt. F. L. Campbell, of the Vandalia, held a conference at Columbia City this morning on matters connected with the interchange of traffic at that point. The two companies recently installed a Toledo-Chicago line, Columbia City being the point of connection, and it is proving a success.

INSPECTED 600 WHEELS.

Saturday and Monday F. C. Cousar, of Cleveland, representing the New York Central lines, inspected 600 car wheels at the Bass shops for that company, leaving for home this morning. Mr. Cousar is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cousar and stopped with them while in the city.

COMPLETES HIS WORK.

Franz Eoestrich, who had charge of the work of installing nine knitting mills at the Thieme Brothers Silk Mills in this city, completed the work last week and is now en route to his home in Chemnitz, Germany.

SCALDED BY STEAM.

S. A. Reed was scalded a few days ago when a plug blew out of a boiler at the Lake Shore roundhouse and threw a stream of water and steam upon him. The worst injuries are on the arms and shoulders. He is at his home on Superior street.

PENNSYLVANIA FIREMAN HURT.

A. C. Seery, of 314 East Butler street, will not be able to work for a few days as a result of an accident yesterday. He was not badly injured.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

W. Griner, F. A. Long and C. H. Geise, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

G. H. Hardesty has taken employment as a fireman with the Pennsylvania company.

R. S. Keller, of the Wayne Knitting Mills, has returned from a business trip to New York.

John J. Lynch, Pennsylvania pipefitter, is looking after some private business in Grand Rapids.

Machinist L. D. Miller, of the Wabash shops, went to the country this morning to attend the funeral of a relative.

Yesterday Gang Foreman Fred J. Stahl, of the Pennsylvania, and his wife left for Muskegon, Mich., to spend two weeks with relatives and friends.

Among the absentees at the Wabash shops on account of the heat today is Ray Cary, an apprentice in the machine shop. He had a slight sunstroke.

Machinist J. A. Chapman has recovered from an injury to one of his feet which kept him from work in the Pennsylvania erecting shop for two weeks.

General Foreman M. Elsner, of the Penn shops of the Wabash, and Road Foreman of Engines M. H. Russell were in the city today on business for the company.

JUDGE BUYS BOY'S SUPPER.

Jurist Pays for Bottle of Milk Lad Took to Drink.

Chicago, July 1.—"Just have your last night's supper on me," said Judge David L. Sullivan in the Englewood court to Steve Fedor. "This squares everything, don't it?" he added, handing 6 cents to Ernest Awl. Awl is a milk wagon driver. Fedor, who is only a boy, had arrived from Clinton, Iowa, on a freight train and having nothing to eat except some peanuts he was selling, had taken a bottle of milk from Awl's wagon. Then Awl had him arrested. "Have you ever been hungry yourself judge?" asked the boy. "Well, if you had you would know how it feels. I got a job selling peanuts in a park, but as I couldn't get my pay right off I was up against it for a supper. Peanuts are all right, but you can't make a meal of 'em." "I'll pay for your supper," said the judge, "and let you go. Would 6 cents be about right?" "Yes, your honor," replied Awl.

A Beautiful Complexion IN 5 MINUTES

If you are fortunate enough to have this adv. catch your eye, you'll be one of the happiest women in the world—for I will absolutely guarantee to give a beautiful complexion in 5 minutes WITHOUT COST TO YOU. In all the history of the world's toilette there has NEVER at any time been such an offer as this—and the best of all is this—YOU CAN TRY AND BE CONVINCED BEFORE you spend a single penny. Thousands of the finest Parisian society women are using this enameline.

Here's the story: I spent the last two years in Europe, and during my travels I discovered an old Parisian physician making Face Enameline. I tried his preparation and was completely amazed at the results—I was delighted—I was thunderstruck—I could hardly believe my own eyes. From him I purchased the formula and I completely control it throughout America.

Two months ago I gave out a few samples to women friends of mine, and since that time I have been literally swamped with requests for this Parisian Face Enameline. Women have besieged me at my home—implored me to give them more of my preparation. Now a company has been formed to market this amazing Face Enameline, and I will make 50,000 women happy this month. You can be among them if you desire.

My Parisian Face Enameline covers birthmarks, moles, freckles, blotches, blackheads, large pores, liver spots. Absolutely no massaging necessary. Five minutes is all that's needed to give you a perfect satiny complexion. It can't rub off. Makes you beautiful immediately. Keeps your skin in exquisite condition. Put on fresh every day. Ladies carry it in their purses. It eradicates wrinkles—prevents chapping. Really it's the most amazing preparation in the whole world.

And now, in order to introduce it to American women I announce that upon receipt of five 2 cent stamps, to help pay packing, postage, time spent in wrapping, etc., I will send every lady a generous sample to carry in her purse. I know so well, that after you have tried this Parisian Enamelline, you will be wildly delighted. I tell you positively there's nothing like it in the whole world.

After you have received your package, let your lady friends try it. They will be amazed. I will mail a package to every lady that sends in five 2-cent stamps, or 10 cents in silver.

In most cases where condemned buildings are used for mercantile purposes they are one-story shacks. Some have recently been supplied with new fronts and fresh paint to relieve the hideousness of decayed fronts, but from the rear they present their naked dilapidation and decay.

Work of the Inspectors.

The condemnation of old buildings in the fire limits has been under consideration for a long time, but for one reason and another was deferred, perhaps in the hope that the rapid development of business and the constant increase of rentals would encourage modern improvements and so obviate necessity for drastic measures.

Mayor Grice, Board of Works Members Bonov, Leanon and Schwegman, Fire Chief Henry Hilbrecht and Building Inspector Wyss comprised the members of the inspecting commission.

Several days were devoted to a careful examination of the structures barked for inspection and several days additional to consideration of the data obtained and the preparation of a report.

The largest building condemned is a factory building in the rear of the Banner Laundry on East Columbia street, and until recently occupied by the Hanna-Brackenridge machine shops.

Some of the structures are very old, in a few cases being among the most ancient of surviving buildings of earlier Fort Wayne.

The razing of those on Calhoun, Wayne and Main streets will afford some of the most eligible sites for modern commercial buildings.

Buildings Condemned.

Those buildings condemned by the report given out at the city hall today are as follows:

Feed barn, northeast corner Clinton and superior; owner and occupant, A. L. Martin. Remarks: When committee was there it was stated owner had made all arrangements to rebuild. Building inspector requested that plans be submitted to him within 15 days; if satisfactory, will be permitted to rebuild; if not, will be given 60 days' notice to raze.

Frame building, 237 West Superior; owner, Peoples' Realty and Investment company; occupied by Leonard gun shop. Remarks: Building unsafe; must be razed within 30 days.

Frame building, 1210 South Calhoun; owner, Carrie A. and R. Spencer Smith; agents, Schrader & Wilson; occupied by fish market. Remarks: Frame building; must be razed within 30 days.

Frame building, southeast corner Calhount and Montgomery; owner, Weil Bros.; 30 days' notice to tear down.

Frame building, 1409-1411 South Calhoun; owner, Railroad Y. M. C. A.; occupied by barber shop and shoe repair shop; frame building; 30 days' notice to raze.

Frame building, 1132 and 1134 Calhount street; occupied by Long Novelty store; owner, William Young; 90 days' time to raze.

Frame building, 1128-1130 Calhoun street; owner, Louis Jocquel; occupied by Louis Jocquel and Dondero; 90 days time to raze.

Brick building, 109 East Wayne street; owner, Henry M. Williams; no tenant; 15 days' notice to raze.

Frame building, 128 East Wayne, owner, O. S. Hanna; 30 days' notice to raze.

Frame house, Maiden Lane and Pearl street; owner, George Dondero; occupied as boarding house; 15 days' notice to raze.

Frame house, 320 East Jefferson owner, Louis Beck; old frame house; 10 days' notice to raze.

Tinkham coal yards, West Main street; all coal sheds to be razed; remove all hay from barn on Pearl street within ten days and tear down barn and office building within ten days; all other buildings to be rebuilt within 90 days.

Brick and frame building, 316-318-320 East Columbia street; occupied by feed barn; owner, Weil Bros.; feed barn of frame and old brick house to be torn down within 30 days.

308-310-312 East Columbia street; owner, Hedekin Land Improvement company; feed barn; 30 days' notice to be razed;

309 East Columbia street; owner, William Moellering estate; occupied by Sam Field; 60 days' notice to repair brick building; also 307 East Columbia street.

Building in rear of Banner laundry on East Columbia street; owner, S. M. Foster; occupied by National Mill Supply company as warehouse; must be razed within 30 days.

Frame houses on East Columbia street, owned by Stapleford; unoccupied; location near Nickel Plate tracks, east of Pettit's warehouse; old frame shacks; 10 days' notice.

Frame building, 308 West Lewis; owner, Mrs. Lucinda Snyder, South Bend; building condemned; must be razed within thirty days.

Barn in rear of Wellington restaurant; owner, Mrs. Louis Schmidt; must be torn down within ten days.

Frame house, 1115 Clinton street; owner, Mr. Foley; 30 days notice to raze.

Eyesores, Unsanitary, Unsafe.

The buildings condemned in the foregoing list are all unsightly, most of them veritable eyesores. This is specially true of those located on business streets like Calhoun and Wayne. Some are unsanitary, some structurally unsafe, all add to fire risk and none has any place in the business district of a modern city.

Those contained in the list made public today together with the old Union House on West Main street, condemned last week, comprise a total of twenty-two structures placed under condemnation and ordered destroyed during the present crusade.

It is believed by the inspection commission that there will be compliance with the order in most cases. If the order is resisted the condemnation proceedings will be carried to the courts and fought out there.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, July 1.—Wheat eased off today on account of lower temperatures and because of light showers in the spring crop states. Resting orders to buy at a moderate decline, however, checked any pronounced weakness. September started at 89¾c to 90c and sagged to 89¾c.

The close, though, was firm at 89¾@89¾c for September, a net loss of ¼@⅜c.

Rains in Illinois and the southwest, with large deliveries here, pulled down corn. September, which opened ¼@⅜c to ½c lower at 61¾c to 62@62⅛c, seemed disposed to avoid any rally.

The oclose was firm with September ⅝@¾c net lower at 61⅝@61¾c.

Big deliveries made oats heavy. September started ⅛@¼c to ⅜c off at 42c to 41¾c but recovered to 42¼c.

Provisions developed firmness owing to lightness of the hog run here and west. First sales varied from last night's level to 2½c advance. September options as follows: Pork, $20.57½; lard, $11.32½; ribs, 11$77½.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, July 1.—Trading was on a nominal basis at the opening today and price changes were small. Even the Harriman stocks were little changed, notwithstanding the court's approval, after the market closed yesterday, of the dissolution plan. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific both rose fractionally at the opening, but on the next transaction fell back to yesterday's close. The only stock to move more than a fraction was Canadian Pacific, which declined a point.

The course of the market during the last few days convinced traders that it was easier to put stocks down than to put them up, and stocks received little attention most of the morning. Bonds were steady.

LOCAL FORECAST.

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 1.—For Fort Wayn eand vicinity: Local thunder storms tonight or Wednesday; slightly cooler tonight.

GENERAL FORECAST.

Washington, D. C. July 1.—For Indiana: Local thunder showers tonight or Wednesday; cooler tonight.

For Ohio: Thunder showers tonight or Wednesday; cooler tonight; cooler Wednesday in east portion.

For Lower Michigan: Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; cooler tonight; cooler Wednesday in east portion.

SUMMARY OF WEATHER CONDITIONS

Excessive temperatures continue over the lake region Ohio valley and the middle Mississippi valley but the hot wave has been broken in the northwest and decdedly cooler weather is being felt as far southeastward as Wisconsin, Iowa and Missouri. Heavy showers have occurred over much of Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma and western Missouri, while some relief from the hot weather has been felt over portions of the lake region and Ohio valley, where some light local showers have occurred.

Yesterday was one of the hottest June days ever experienced over Illinois and Indiana, where all stations recorded maximum temperatures of 98 degrees. The temperature of 98 degrees at Fort Wayne is as high as any June record ever kept in this city.

The excessive heat of this section will probably be broken by local thunder showers tonight or Wednesday, and slightly cooler weather will prevail tonight.

HAS NO FUNDS TO CONSTRUCT POOLS

Park Board Will Furnish Swimming Places If Cash is Given.

NEED $3,000 TO $5,000

While the board of park commissioners will be very glad to provide swimming pools and appurtenant conveniences in three or four of the larger parks, it is without funds to proceed with such work at this time.

If swimming pools are established in time to be used this season the money will have to come by public subscription or from private sources. It is estimated that to construct two pools in each park—one for boys and one for girls—and provide lockers and dressing rooms from $3,000 to $5,000 will be needed—most likely the latter figure.

The pools could be constructed in a short time, as only excavations and concrete work would be involved, while lockers and dressing rooms would from necessity imposed by limited funds be of simple character.

The park board is confronted at the outset by the problem of a water supply for bathing pools. Foster park could be supplied from the St. Mary's river, but below that point the water is doubtless unfit by reason of drainage contaminations to be used for bathing. Lawton park could very well be supplied from Spy Run creek. Weisser park, Reservoir park and Swinney park would have to be furnished with water from the city's supply. Whether or not the waterworks department could spare the large quantity of water during the heated term when the general demand for water by regular consumers is greatest is a question that must be worked out.

Construction of a pool in Swinney park would be an easy matter for there is a natural place there for it and small expense for excavation would be entailed.

It is probable that the question of raising funds by subscription will be taken up at once. The Commercial club is looked to for leadership in the movement.
